

118TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 448

Recognizing and honoring Daniel Penny of West Islip, New York, for his heroism and courage in apprehending a threat to public safety.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 25, 2023

Mr. OGLES (for himself, Ms. GREENE of Georgia, Mr. VAN DREW, Mr. STEUBE, and Mr. GOSAR) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Accountability

---

RESOLUTION

Recognizing and honoring Daniel Penny of West Islip, New York, for his heroism and courage in apprehending a threat to public safety.

Whereas, on May 1, 2023, ex-Marine Daniel Penny rode on the F Train in Manhattan, where he encountered Jordan Neely;

Whereas Jordan Neely, an individual arrested 42 times by the New York Police Department, including for dragging a 7-year-old girl across a street and physically assaulting a 67-year-old woman, began throwing trash at passengers and, according to one witness, told individuals that he was willing to kill and go to jail;

Whereas this witness further indicated that “people that travel the subway see and hear everything—this was dif-

And frightening . . . people were gravitating toward the exit doors, and we couldn't get out because we were still between stations . . . people exited quickly [when we pulled in], and people were trying to call 911 when they were in the train . . . I sensed danger.”;

Whereas Daniel Penny, with disregard for his personal well-being, quickly intervened to protect train passengers from an active threat;

Whereas the aforementioned witness also stated, “this isn't about race. This is about people of all colors who were very, very afraid and a man who stepped in to help them.”; and

Whereas, for doing so, leftist activists have condemned Penny as a “White supremacist” and a “vigilante” for his efforts to protect his fellow Americans, neither description having any basis in fact: Now, therefore, be it

1        Resolved, That the House of Representatives recog-
 2 nizes and honors Daniel Penny of West Islip, New York,
 3 for his heroism and courage in apprehending a threat to
 4 public safety.

○