 4 INTERNET GAMES OF SKILL
 5 FACILITIES

6 SEC. 101. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

8 (1) In the United States, gambling and gaming
 9 activities, equipment, and operations have tradition-
 10 ally been subject to various forms of Federal and 11 State control, regulation, and enforcement, with

1 some form of gambling being permitted in nearly 2 every State and by many Indian tribes.

3 (2) The demarcation between games of chance
4 and games of skill is not always clearly drawn, and 5 the treatment and definition of “games of skill” has 6 varied from jurisdiction to jurisdiction.

7 (3) Millions of people in the United States
8 enjoy competing with other players in poker, chess,
9 bridge, mah-jong, backgammon, and similar games
10 where the outcome turns predominantly on the skill
11 of the participants. While each of these games con-
12 tains an element of chance, over any substantial in-13 terval, a player’s ultimate success is determined by 14 that player’s relative level of skill.

15 (4) Poker, in particular, enjoys a long tradition
16 in the United States. Poker is part of the cultural 17 and recreational fabric of the United States and has 18 been since the founding days of the United States.
19 United States poker aficionados have included presi-
20 dents, judges, and statesmen throughout the history
21 of the United States.

22 (5) Since the development of the Internet, on-23 line sites offering Internet gambling and similar 24 games have raised numerous policy, consumer pro-
25 tection, and enforcement concerns for the Federal

1 and State governments as millions of United States
2 persons have chosen to play online on sites offered
3 by operators located in many different countries
4 under a variety of licensing and regulatory regimes.

5 (6) Bets and wagers made with respect to 6 games in which success is predominantly determined 7 by the skill of the players and in which the bets and 8 wagers are between the participants can and should 9 be treated as distinct from other bets and wagers
10 made with respect to games in which success is not 11 predominantly determined by the skill of the players
12 or in which the wagers are not between the partici-
13 pants such as Internet wagering with off-shore sites
14 on games of chance and betting on sporting events, 15 all of which (with the exception of certain betting on 16 horse racing) are barred by the laws of the United 17 States.

18 (7) The hosting by Internet operators of games
19 predominantly determined by the skill of players and 20 in which wagers can be made between the partici-
21 pants should be controlled by a strict Federal licens-
22 ing and regulatory framework—

23 (A) to prevent underage wagering and oth-
24 erwise to protect vulnerable individuals;

25 (B) to ensure the games are fair;

1 (C) to address the concerns of law enforce-
2 ment; and

3 (D) to enforce limitations on the activity
4 established by the States and Indian tribes.

5 (8) An effective Federal licensing system would 6 ensure that licenses are issued only to Internet oper-
7 ators who—

8 (A) meet strict criteria to protect con-
9 sumers;

10 (B) are in good financial and legal stand-
11 ing;

12 (C) are of good character, honesty, and in-
13 tegrity;

14 (D) utilize appropriate technology to pre-
15 vent those of insufficient age from partici-
16 pating;

17 (E) adopt and implement systems to pro-
18 tect compulsive players;

19 (F) have in place risk-based methods—

20 (i) to identify and combat money
21 laundering and fraud; and

22 (ii) to protect the privacy and security
23 of users;

24 (G) adopt strict internal controls which are 25 subject to audit; and

1 (H) adopt and implement systems to col-
2 lect and remit taxes due.

3 (9) Effective regulation requires application of 4 the regulatory provisions prescribed under sub-
5 chapter V of chapter 53 of title 31, United States
6 Code, as added by section 102, to all persons seek-
7 ing a license to operate an Internet game-of-skill fa-
8 cility (as such term is defined in section 5381 of 9 such subchapter), with each State and Indian tribe
10 having the ability to prohibit operators of Internet
11 game-of-skill facilities from accepting bets or wagers
12 from persons located within the territory of the 13 State or Indian tribe by opting out under section
14 5385(a) of such subchapter, as so added.

15 (10) Maintenance of a list of unlawful Internet
16 gambling enterprises and the owners and operators
17 of such enterprises will aid law enforcement efforts
18 to prevent unlawful Internet gambling.

19 (11) Longstanding Federal policy against gam-
20 bling on professional, scholastic, or amateur sporting
21 events, and all criminal laws prohibiting such gam-
22 bling, should remain in full force and effect.

23 (12) Licensing and regulating Internet game-of-24 skill facilities (as such term is defined in section 25 5381 of title 31, United States Code) in the United

1 States would provide additional tax revenues for the 2 United States and would reduce tax avoidance.

 4 ATION OF INTERNET GAME-OF-SKILL FACILI-
