22                  “(h) GEOLOCATION INFORMATION.—

23                  “(1) IN GENERAL.—A governmental entity may 24                  require a provider of electronic communication serv-25                  ice, geolocation information service, or remote com-

1        putting service, to disclose stored geolocation information 2        only pursuant to a warrant issued and executed in accordance with the Federal Rules of 3        Criminal Procedure (or, in the case of a State court, 4        issued using State warrant procedures), issued by a 5        court of competent jurisdiction.

7                “(2) NOTICE.—Except as provided in section 8        2705, not later than 10 business days after a governmental entity acquires stored geolocation information, the governmental entity shall serve upon, or 9        deliver to by registered or first-class mail, electronic 10      mail, or other means reasonably calculated to be effective as may be specified by the court issuing the 11      warrant, the subscriber or customer—

15                “(A) a copy of the warrant or emergency 16      request; and

17                “(B) a notice that includes the information
18      referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) of section 19      2705(a)(4)(B).

20                “(i) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION RELATED TO LEGAL 21      PROCESS.—Nothing in this section or in section 2702
22      shall limit an otherwise lawful authority of a governmental 23      entity to use an administrative subpoena authorized by 24      Federal or State statute, a grand jury, trial, or civil dis-
25      covery subpoena, or a warrant issued using the procedures

1 described in the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure (or,
2 in the case of a State court, issued using State warrant 3 procedures) by a court of competent jurisdiction to—4           “(1) require an originator, addressee, or in-5 tended recipient of a wire or electronic communica-

6 tion to disclose a wire or electronic communication 7 (including the contents of that communication) to 8 the governmental entity;

9           “(2) require a person or entity that provides an 10 electronic communication service to the officers, di-
11 rectors, employees, or agents of the person or entity
12 (for the purpose of carrying out their duties) to dis-13 close wire or electronic communication (including the 14 contents of that communication) to or from the per-15 son or entity itself or to or from an officer, director, 16 employee, or agent of the entity to a governmental 17 entity, if the wire or electronic communication is 18 stored, held, or maintained on an electronic commu-
19 nications system owned, operated, or controlled by 20 the person or entity; or

21           “(3) require a person or entity that provides a 22 remote computing service or electronic communica-
23 tion service to disclose a wire or electronic communica-24 tion (including the contents of that communica-25 tion) that advertises or promotes a product or serv-

1       ice and that has been made readily accessible to the 2       general public.”.

3       (c) COST REIMBURSEMENT.—Section 2706(a) of title
4 18, United States Code, is amended by inserting 5 “geolocation information,” after “records.”.

6 SEC. 3. PARTICULARITY REQUIREMENT FOR STORED ELEC-

7                   TRONIC RECORDS.

8       Section 2703(d) of title 18, United States Code, is 9 amended—

10              (1) by redesignating—

11                 (A) the first and second sentences as para-
12                 graph (1) and adjusting the margins accord-13                 ingly; and

14                 (B) the third sentence as paragraph (2)
15                 and adjusting the margins accordingly;

16              (2) in paragraph (1), as redesignated—

17                 (A) in the first sentence—

18                     (i) by striking “(b) or”; and 19                     (ii) by striking “the contents of a wire 20                     or electronic communication, or”; and 21                 (B) by inserting “The court order shall de-22                 scribe with particularity the records or other in-23                 formation to be seized by specifying, as appro-24                 priate and reasonable in light of the specific cir-25                 cumstances of the investigation, the time peri-

1               ods covered, the target individuals or accounts, 2               the applications or services covered, and the 3               types of information sought.” after “investiga-4               tion.”; and

5               (3) in paragraph (2), as redesignated—
6                       (A) by striking “, if” and inserting “, if—7                       ”; 8                       (B) by striking “the information” and in-9                       serting “(A) the information”; 10                  (C) by inserting “; or” after “nature”; and 11                  (D) by striking “or compliance” and in-12                       serting “(B) compliance”.

13 SEC. 4. NOTICE OF LAWFULLY OBTAINED INFORMATION.

14               Section 2705 of title 18, United States Code, is 15 amended—

16               (1) in subsection (a)—
17                       (A) by striking paragraph (1) and insert-18                       ing the following:

19               “(1) IN GENERAL.—A governmental entity that 20               is seeking a warrant under subsection (a) or (h) of 21               section 2703 may include in the application for the 22               warrant a request for an order delaying the notifica-23               tion required under section 2703(b) for a period of 24               not more than 90 days.”;

11 (C) by striking paragraphs (3) and (4) and 12 inserting the following:

13       “(3) EXTENSION.—Upon request by a govern-
14       mental entity, a court may grant one or more exten-
15       sions of the delay of notification granted under para-16       graph (2) of not more than 90 days.”;

17 (D) by redesignating paragraph (5) as 18 paragraph (4);

19 (E) in paragraph (4), as redesignated.—

(i) in the matter preceding subparagraph—

(I) by striking “Upon” and inserting “EXPIRATION OF THE DELAY OF NOTIFICATION.—Upon”;

(II) by striking “(1) or (4) of this subsection” and inserting “(2) or (3)”;

6 (IV) by striking “to,” and insert-
7 ing “, electronic mail, or other means
8 reasonably calculated to be effective
9 as specified by the court approving 10 the search warrant.”;

(ii) by striking subparagraph (A);

15               “(A) a copy of the warrant; and”; and 16 (iv) in subparagraph (B)—

17 (I) in the matter preceding clause

18 (i)—

19 (aa) by inserting “notice 20 that” before “informs”; and

21 (bb) by striking “such” and 22 inserting “the”;

23 (II) by redesignating—

1                   that delay was made” and inserting 2                   “the identity of the court authorizing 3                   the delay”; and 4                   (VII) in clause (vi), as redesignated, by striking “which provision of 5                   this chapter allowed such delay” and 6                   inserting “of the provision of this 7                   chapter under which the delay was au-8                   thorized”; and

9                   (F) by striking paragraph (6); and 10                  (2) by striking subsection (b) and inserting the 11                  following:

12                 “(b) PRECLUSION OF NOTICE TO SUBJECT OF Gov-
13                 ERNMENTAL ACCESS.—

14                 “(1) IN GENERAL.—A governmental entity that 15                 is obtaining the contents of a communication or in-16                 formation or records under section 2703 may apply 17                 to a court for an order directing a provider of elec-18                 tronic communication service, geolocation service, or 19                 remote computing service to which a warrant, order, 20                 subpoena, or other directive under section 2703 is 21                 directed not to notify any other person of the exist-22                 ence of the warrant, order, subpoena, or other direc-23                 tive for a period of not more than 90 days.

1                 “(2) DETERMINATION.—A court shall grant a 2 request for an order made under paragraph (1) if 3 the court determines that there is reason to believe, 4 based on specific and articulable facts, that notifica-
5 tion of the existence of the warrant, order, subpoena, 6 or other directive will result in—

7                     “(A) endangering the life or physical safety 8 of an individual;

9                     “(B) flight from prosecution;

10                  “(C) destruction of or tampering with evi-
11 dence;

12                  “(D) intimidation of potential witnesses; or 13                  “(E) otherwise seriously jeopardizing an 14 investigation or unduly delaying a trial.

15                 “(3) EXTENSION.—Upon request by a govern-
16 mental entity, a court may grant one or more exten-
17 sions of an order granted under paragraph (2) of 18 not more than 90 days.

19                 “(4) NOTIFICATION OF CHANGED CIR-
20 CUMSTANCES.—Upon conclusion of the investigation
21 for which a warrant, order, subpoena, or other direc-
22 tive under section 2703 was sought, or if the need 23 for the nondisclosure order under subparagraph (2)
24 ceases to exist, the governmental entity that re-
25 quested the nondisclosure order shall, within a rea-

1       sonable period of time, notify the court of the 2       changed circumstances so that the nondisclosure
3       order can be reassessed or vacated.

4           “(5) EXCEPTION.—A provider of electronic 5       communication service or remote computing service 6       to which an order under subsection (b)(2) applies, or 7       officer, employee, or agent thereof, may disclose in-8       formation otherwise subject to any applicable non-9       disclosure requirement to—

10           “(A) those persons to whom disclosure is 11       necessary in order to comply with the request;

12           “(B) an attorney in order to obtain legal 13       advice or assistance regarding the request; and 14           “(C) upon an application by a provider, 15       any person the court determines can be notified

16       of the request without causing the adverse re-17       sult in subparagraph (2) that serves as the 18       basis for the issuance of the nondisclosure 19       order.

20           “(6) SCOPE OF NONDISCLOSURE ORDER.—Any 21       person to whom disclosure is made under paragraph 22       (5) shall be subject to the nondisclosure require-23       ments applicable to the person to whom the order is 24       issued under subparagraph (2) in the same manner
25       as the person to whom the request is issued. Any re-

1 cipient that discloses to a person information other-
2 wise subject to a nondisclosure requirement shall no-
3 tify the person of the applicable nondisclosure re-4 quirement.”.

5 SEC. 5. WARRANT REQUIREMENT FOR REAL-TIME
6 GEOLOCATION INFORMATION AND LOCATION
7 TRACKING.

8 (a) DEFINITIONS.—Section 2711 of title 18, United 9 States Code, is amended—

10 (1) in paragraph (3)(B), by striking “and” at 11 the end;

12 (2) in paragraph (4), by striking the period at 13 the end and inserting a semicolon; and 14 (3) by adding at the end the following:

15 “(5) the term ‘electronic communications de-
16 vice’ means any device that enables access to or use 17 of an electronic communications system, electronic 18 communication service, remote computing service, or 19 geolocation information service;

20 “(6) the term ‘geolocation information’—

21 “(A) means any information concerning 22 the past or current location of an electronic 23 communications device that is in whole or in 24 part generated by or derived from the operation

1           or use of the electronic communications device;

2           and

3           “(B) does not include—

4               “(i) information described in section

5               2703(c)(2); or

6               “(ii) the contents of a communication;

7           and

8               “(7) the term ‘geolocation information service’

9           means the provision of a service or functionality that 10          uses or collects geolocation information.”.

11          (b) LOCATION TRACKING OF ELECTRONIC COMMU-
12     NICATIONS DEVICE.—

13           (1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 121 of title 18, 14          United States Code, is amended by adding at the 15          end the following:

16   “SEC. 2713. LOCATION TRACKING OF ELECTRONIC COMMU-
17     NICATIONS DEVICE.

18           “(a) PROHIBITION.—Except as provided in sub-19          section (b), (c), or (d), or section 2702 or 2703, no govern-20          mental entity may access or use an electronic communica-21          tions device to acquire geolocation information.

22           “(b) ACQUISITION PURSUANT TO A WARRANT OR 23     COURT ORDER.—A governmental entity may access or use
24          an electronic communications device to acquire geolocation 25          information if the governmental entity obtains—

1           “(1) a warrant issued and executed in accord-2       ance with provisions relating to tracking devices in 3       the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure (or, in the 4       case of a State court, issued using State warrant 5       procedures), issued by a court of competent jurisdic-6       tion authorizing the access or use of an electronic 7       communications device to acquire geolocation infor-8       mation; or

9           “(2) a court order under title I, title III, or title 10      VII of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 11      1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq., 1821 et seq., and 12      1881 et seq.) authorizing the access or use of an 13      electronic communications device to acquire 14      geolocation information.

15       “(c) PERMITTED ACQUISITIONS WITHOUT COURT 16 ORDER.—A governmental entity may access or use an 17 electronic communications device to acquire geolocation
18 information—

19           “(1) as permitted under section 222(d)(4) of 20       the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C.
21       222(d)(4)) in order to respond to a call for emer-
22       gency services by a user of an electronic communica-
23       tions device;

1           “(2) with the lawful consent of the owner or au-
2         thorized user of the electronic communications de-3         vice concerned; or

4           “(3) if the owner or user of the electronic com-5         munications device concerned has knowingly commu-
6         nicated geolocation information in a manner that is 7         readily accessible to the general public.

8         “(d) EMERGENCY ACQUISITION OF GEOLOCATION
9         INFORMATION.—

10           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraph (2), 11         an investigative or law enforcement officer specially 12         designated by the Attorney General, the Deputy At-13         torney General, the Associate Attorney General, any 14         Assistant Attorney General, any acting Assistant At-15         torney General, any United States attorney, any act-
16         ing United States attorney, or the principal pros-
17         ecuting attorney of any State or political subdivision
18         thereof acting pursuant to a statute of that State 19         may access or use an electronic communications de-20         vice to acquire geolocation information if the inves-
21         tigative or law enforcement officer reasonably deter-22         mines that—

23           “(A) an emergency situation exists that—24                  “(i) involves—

1                         “(I) immediate danger of death
2                         or serious bodily injury to any person; 3                         or

4                         “(II) an immediate threat to na-5                         tional security; and 6                         “(ii) requires the access or use of an 7                         electronic communications device to ac-8                         quire geolocation information before an 9                         order authorizing the acquisition may, with 10                         due diligence, be obtained; and

11                         “(B) in circumstances in which geolocation
12                         information may be used as evidence of a crime
13                         or in furtherance of a criminal investigation, 14                         there are grounds upon which an order could be 15                         entered under this section to authorize the ac-16                         cessing or use of an electronic communications 17                         device to acquire geolocation information.

18                         “(2) NOTICE, ORDER AND TERMINATION.—If 19                         an investigative or law enforcement officer accesses 20                         or uses an electronic communications device to ac-21                         quire geolocation information under paragraph (1)—

22                         “(A) the officer shall, not later than 10 23                         business days after acquiring geolocation infor-24                         mation, serve upon, or deliver to by registered 25                         or first-class mail, electronic mail, or other

1 means reasonably calculated to be effective, no-
2 tice to the owner or authorized user of the elec-
3 tronic communications device whose geolocation
4 information was acquired that such information
5 was obtained or accessed pursuant to the emer-6 gency provisions under this subsection and de-7 scribing the factual bases that led to the offi-
8 cer's determination that an emergency situation
9 existed;

10 “(B) in circumstances in which geolocation
11 information may be used as evidence of a crime
12 or in furtherance of a criminal investigation,
13 not later than 48 hours after the activity to ac-14 quire or access the geolocation information has 15 occurred, or begins to occur, the investigative or 16 law enforcement officer shall seek a warrant or 17 order described in subsection (b) approving the 18 acquisition; and

19 “(C) unless a warrant or order described 20 in subsection (b) is issued approving the acqui-21 sition, the activity to acquire the geolocation in-22 formation shall terminate immediately at the 23 earlier of the time—

24 “(i) the information sought is ob-
25 tained;

1                         “(ii) the application for the warrant 2                         or order is denied; or

3                         “(iii) at which 48 hours have elapsed 4                         since the activity to acquire or access the 5                         geolocation information began to occur.

6                         “(3) VIOLATION AND SUPPRESSION OF EVI-
7                         DENCE.—

8                         “(A) IN GENERAL.—In a circumstance de-9                         scribed in subparagraph (B)—

10                         “(i) no information obtained, or evi-
11                         dence derived, from geolocation informa-
12                         tion acquired as part of the access or use 13                         of an electronic communications device to 14                         acquire geolocation information may be re-
15                         ceived into evidence or otherwise disclosed 16                         in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding 17                         in or before any court, grand jury, depart-18                         ment, office, agency, regulatory body, legis-19                         lative committee, or other authority of the 20                         United States, a State, or political subdivi-21                         sion thereof;

22                         “(ii) no information concerning any 23                         person acquired from the geolocation infor-
24                         mation may be used, disseminated, or dis-

1                   closed in any other manner, without the 2                   consent of the person; and

3                         “(iii) all information collected shall be 4                   promptly destroyed.

5                         “(B) CIRCUMSTANCES.—A circumstance
6                   described in this subparagraph is any instance 7                   in which—

8                         “(i) an investigative or law enforce-9                   ment officer does not—

10                         “(I) obtain a warrant or order
11                   described in subsection (b) within 48 12                   hours of commencing the access or 13                   use of the electronic communications 14                   device; or

15                         “(II) terminate the activity to ac-
16                   quire geolocation information in ac-17                   cordance with paragraph (2)(B); or 18                         “(ii) a court denies the application for 19                   a warrant or order approving the accessing 20                   or use of an electronic communications de-21                   vice to acquire geolocation information.

22                         “(e) ASSISTANCE AND COMPENSATION.—

23                         “(1) IN GENERAL.—A warrant described in 24                   subsection (b)(1) authorizing the accessing or use of 25                   an electronic communications device to acquire

1       geolocation information shall, upon request of the 2       applicant, direct that a provider of electronic com-3       munication service, remote computing service, or 4       geolocation information service shall provide to the 5       applicant forthwith all information, facilities, and 6       technical assistance necessary to accomplish the ac-
7       quisition unobtrusively and with a minimum of inter-8       ference with the services that the provider is pro-
9       viding to or through the electronic communications 10      device in question.

11      “(2) COMPENSATION.—Any provider of elec-
12      tronic communication service, remote computing 13      service, or geolocation information service providing 14      information, facilities, or technical assistance under 15      a directive under paragraph (1) shall be com-
16      pensated by the applicant for reasonable expenses 17      incurred in providing the information, facilities, or 18      assistance.

19      “(f) NO CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST A PROVIDER.—
20     No cause of action shall lie in any court against any pro-
21     vider of electronic communication service, remote com-22     puting service, or geolocation information service, or an 23     officer, employee, or agent of the provider or other speci-24     fied person for providing information, facilities, or assist-

1 ance necessary to accomplish an acquisition of geolocation
2 information authorized under this section.”.

3                   (2) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMEND-4                   MENT.—The table of sections for chapter 121 of 5                   title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding 6                   at the end the following:

“2713. Location tracking of electronic communications device.”.

7 SEC. 6. SUPPRESSION OF UNLAWFULLY OBTAINED WIRE
8                   OR ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION OR 9                   GEOLOCATION INFORMATION.

10               (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 121 of title 18, United 11 States Code, as amended by section 5(b), is amended by 12 adding at the end the following:

13 “§ 2714. Suppression remedy

14               “(a) IN GENERAL.—If a governmental entity requires 15 the disclosure of a wire or electronic communication or 16 geolocation information in violation of this chapter, or ac-
17 cesses or uses an electronic communications device to ac-
18 quire geolocation information in violation of this chapter, 19 no part of the contents of the communication, no
20 geolocation information, and no evidence derived there-21 from may be received in evidence in any trial, hearing, 22 or other proceeding in or before any court, grand jury, 23 department, officer, agency, regulatory body, legislative 24 committee, or other authority of the United States, a 25 State, or a political subdivision thereof.

1       “(b) GROUNDS.—An aggrieved person in a trial, 2 hearing, or proceeding in or before a court, department, 3 officer, agency, regulatory body, or other authority of the 4 United States, a State, or a political subdivision thereof
5 may move to suppress the contents of any wire or elec-
6 tronic communication or geolocation information disclosed
7 or acquired under this chapter, or evidence derived there-8 from, on the grounds that—

9           “(1) the communication or information was un-10 lawfully disclosed;

11           “(2) the warrant under which it was disclosed 12 is insufficient on its face; or

13           “(3) the disclosure was not made in conformity 14 with the warrant.

15       “(c) PROCEDURE.—

16           “(1) TIMING.—A motion under subsection (b)
17 shall be made before the trial, hearing, or proceeding 18 commences, unless there was no opportunity to 19 make such motion or the person was not aware of 20 the grounds of the motion.

21           “(2) INSPECTION.—The judge or other official, 22 upon the filing of a motion under subsection (b), 23 may make available to the aggrieved person or the 24 attorney for the aggrieved person for inspection such 25 portions of the disclosed communication, geolocation

1 information, or evidence derived therefrom as the 2 judge or other official determines to be in the inter-3 ests of justice.

4 “(3) MOTION GRANTED.—If a motion under 5 subsection (b) is granted, the contents of the dis-
6 closed wire or electronic communication, geolocation 7 information, or evidence derived therefrom, shall be 8 treated as having been obtained in violation of this 9 chapter.

10 “(d) APPEAL.—In addition to any other right to ap-11 peal, the United States shall have the right to appeal an 12 order granting a motion to suppress made under sub-13 section (b) if the United States attorney certifies to the 14 judge or other official granting such motion that the ap-15 peal is not taken for purposes of delay. Such appeal shall 16 be taken within 30 days after the date the order was en-17 tered and shall be diligently prosecuted.

18 “(e) DEFINITION.—In this section, the term ‘ag-19 grieved person’ means—

20 “(1) a person whose wire or electronic commu-
21 nication or geolocation information was disclosed 22 pursuant to this chapter; or

23 “(2) the owner or authorized user of the elec-24 tronic communications device whose geolocation in-25 formation was acquired pursuant to this chapter.”.

1           (b) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENT.— 2 The table of sections for chapter 121 of title 18, United 3 States Code, as amended by section 5(b), is amended by 4 adding at the end the following:
“2714. Suppression remedy.”.

5 SEC. 7. PEN REGISTER AND TRAP AND TRACE REFORMS.

6           (a) APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER FOR A PEN REG-
7 ISTER OR A TRAP AND TRACE DEVICE.—Section
8 3122(b)(2) of title 18, United States Code, is amended—9               (1) by striking “a certification by the appli-
10              cant” and inserting “specific and articulable facts 11              showing that there are reasonable grounds to be-12              lieve”; and 13               (2) by inserting “and material” after “rel-14              evant”.

15           (b) ISSUANCE OF AN ORDER FOR A PEN REGISTER
16 OR A TRAP AND TRACE DEVICE.—Section 3123 of title
17 18, United States Code, is amended—

18               (1) in subsection (a)—
19                   (A) in paragraph (1)— 20                       (i) by striking “certified to the court” 21                      and inserting “offered specific and 22                      articulable facts showing that there are 23                      reasonable grounds to believe”; and 24                       (ii) by inserting “and material” after 25                      “relevant”; and

1 (B) in paragraph (2)—

2 (i) by striking “has certified to the 3 court” and inserting “offered specific and
4 articulable facts showing that there are
5 reasonable grounds to believe”; and

6 (ii) by inserting “and material” after
7 “relevant”; and

8 (2) in subsection (d)—

(B) in paragraph (2), by inserting “for a period of 30 days after termination of the order” after “investigation”.

15 SEC. 8. GAO AND FCC REPORT ON CELL-SITE SIMULATORS.

16       (a) FCC REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after the 17 date of enactment, the Federal Communications Commis-18 sion shall submit to the Committee on the Judiciary of 19 the Senate and Committee on the Judiciary of the House 20 of Representatives a report regarding the domestic use of 21 cell-site simulators (or “IMSI catchers”) by Federal, 22 State, and local law enforcement agencies, which shall in-23 clude—

24 (1) an evaluation of the security vulnerabilities 25 in cellular phones and cellular networks exploited by

1       cell-site simulators, and the extent to which those 2       vulnerabilities could be or have been exploited by 3       criminals or foreign governments; and

4           (2) an analysis of whether the use of cell-site
5       simulators results in disruptions in cellular phone 6       service in affected areas and the extent of such dis-7       ruptions.

8       (b) GAO REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after the 9       date of enactment, the Comptroller General of the United 10      States shall submit to the Committee on the Judiciary of 11      the Senate and the Committee on the Judiciary of the 12      House of Representatives a report regarding the domestic 13      use of cell-site simulators (or “IMSI catchers”) by Fed-14      eral, State, and local law enforcement agencies, which to 15      the extent feasible shall include—

16           (1) a list of each Federal, State, and local law 17       enforcement agency that uses cell-site simulators,
18       and for what purposes, including whether the devices
19       are used to monitor protests or other large public 20       gatherings and the types of crimes they are used to 21       investigate;

22           (2) the extent to which the Federal Government
23       is providing or funding the purchase of cell-site sim-
24       ulators for State and local law enforcement agencies,

1       including which Federal grants are used for such 2       purpose;

3               (3) a list of each Federal agency that makes 4       cell-site simulators available for use by State or local 5       law enforcement agencies, information about any 6       agreements or procedures governing that sharing,
7       and information about how frequently such sharing 8       occurs;

9               (4) whether any Federal, State, or local law en-10      forcement agencies are using cell-site simulators to 11      obtain the contents of communications, deliver 12      malware to phones, or for purposes other than locat-13      ing a particular cellular device;

14               (5) whether and the extent to which any Fed-15      eral, State, or local law enforcement agencies are 16      using cell-site simulators for enforcement of civil im-
17      migration law;

18               (6) an explanation of the methods used by Fed-19      eral, State, or local law enforcement agencies to de-20      ploy cell-site simulators, including whether such de-21      vices are attached to planes or other aerial devices;

22               (7) an explanation of the approval process that 23      Federal, State, and local law enforcement agencies 24      require prior to use of cell-site simulators, whether 25      these agencies obtain judicial approval prior to de-

1 ployment of cell-site simulators, and if so, what type 2 and with what frequency;

3 (8) an evaluation of whether Federal, State, or 4 local law enforcement agencies have adequate train-5 ing and auditing mechanisms in place regarding the 6 use of cell-site simulators, and whether these agen-
7 cies have policies or procedures governing the dele-8 tion of information collected by cell-site simulators;

9 (9) the number of State and local law enforce-
10 ment agencies that are subject to nondisclosure 11 agreements or other orders limiting disclosure of in-12 formation regarding the use of cell-site simulators;
13 and

14 (10) the extent to which Federal, State, or local 15 law enforcement use of cell cite simulators has a dis-16 proportionate impact on particular communities, and 17 disproportionately impacts particular racial, ethnic, or other 18 disadvantaged communities.

19 SEC. 9. RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.

20 Nothing in this Act, or an amendment made by this 21 Act, shall be construed to preclude the acquisition by the 22 United States Government of—

23 (1) the contents of a wire or electronic commu-
24 nication pursuant to other lawful authorities, includ-
25 ing the authorities under chapter 119 of title 18,

1       United States Code, the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.), or 2       any other provision of Federal law not specifically 3       amended by this Act; or

5               (2) geolocation information, records or other in-6       formation relating to a subscriber or customer of 7       any electronic communication service or remote com-8       puting service (not including the content of such 9       communications) pursuant to chapter 119 of title
10      18, United States Code, the Foreign Intelligence
11      Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.),
12      or any other provision of Federal law not specifically 13      amended by this Act.
