

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 3142

To establish the Interagency United States-Based Terrorism Threat
Information Sharing Commission, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

DECEMBER 19, 2019

Ms. HASSAN (for herself and Mr. JOHNSON) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Select Committee on Intelligence

A BILL

To establish the Interagency United States-Based Terrorism
Threat Information Sharing Commission, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Increasing Efficiency
5 of All United States-Based Terrorism Information Shar-6 ing Act of 2019”.

7 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

8 Congress makes the following findings:

9 (1) Eighteen years after September 11, 2001,
10 the Federal Government needs to reevaluate its

1 counterterrorism information sharing architecture in 2 the United States to support the ability of Federal,
3 State, and local law enforcement to identify, track, 4 and prevent all terrorist threats in the United 5 States.

6 (2) The current National Strategy for Counter-
7 terrorism states that incidents of domestic terrorism 8 in the United States are on the rise, perpetrated by 9 individuals not inspired by foreign terrorist organi-10 zations but instead by other forms of terrorism in 11 the United States (sometimes as referred to as “do-12 mestic terrorists” by the executive branch), and indi-
13 viduals inspired by foreign terrorist organizations re-
14 main a persistent threat.

15 (3) Furthermore, the terrorist threat in the 16 United States is increasingly diffuse and unpredict-
17 able, primarily conducted by lone actors who are mo-
18 tivated or inspired by a range of violent ideologies.
19 Lone actors are able to operate with little to no
20 warning and present significant challenges to law
21 enforcement and security officials working to iden-
22 tify and disrupt potential threats. Robust and com-
23 prehensive information sharing regarding all ter-24 rorist threats in the United States, irrespective of

1 inspiration, is key to our ability to prevent attacks
2 and save lives.

3 (4) Lastly, increasing distribution and stand-
4 ardization of Federal terrorism training that reflects 5 all types of United States-based terrorism threats is 6 critical to support Federal, State, and local law en-
7 forcement’s ability to keep all of our communities 8 safe.

9 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

10 In this Act:

11 (1) APPROPRIATE COMMITTEES OF CON-
12 GRESS.—The term “appropriate committees of Con-

6 (2) DUTIES OF THE CHAIRPERSON.—The chair-7 person appointed under paragraph (1) shall—

8 (A) lead the interagency process to prepare 9 the report required by section 5(b)(1);

10 (B) arbitrate difference among those in-
11 volved in preparing the report required by sec-12 tion 5(b)(1); and

13 (C) ensure that each Federal agency rep-
14 resented in the membership of the Commis-
15 sion—

16 (i) has equal opportunity for input in 17 matters concerning the Commission; and

18 (ii) will lead efforts under section 5 19 that pertain to matters with respect to 20 which the agency has a statutory mandate.

21 SEC. 5. DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION.

22 (a) REVIEW.—

23 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Commission shall con-
24 duct a review of threat information sharing de-25 scribed in section 4(a)(1).

1 (2) ELEMENTS.—The review required by para-
2 graph (1) shall include the following:

3 (A) The assessment described in subpara-
4 graph (A) of subsection (b)(2).

5 (B) Development of the findings described
6 in subparagraphs (B) and (C) of such sub-
7 section.

8 (C) Development of the recommendations
9 described in subparagraph (D) of such sub-
10 section.

11 (b) REPORT.—

12 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Commission shall sub-
13 mit to the Director of National Intelligence, the Sec-
14 retary of Homeland Security, the Attorney General,
15 and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investiga-16 tion a report on the findings of the Commission with 17 respect to the review conducted under subsection 18 (a)(1).

19 (2) CONTENTS.—The report submitted under 20 paragraph (1) shall include the following:

21 (A) ASSESSMENT.—An assessment of cur-
22 rent capabilities, mechanisms, gaps, and chal-
23 lenges regarding nationwide United States-
24 based terrorism threat-information sharing and 25 training.

1 (B) INFORMATION SHARING FINDINGS.—
2 Findings on information sharing, including with 3 respect to the following:

4 (i) BASELINE EXISTING TYPES OF 5 TERRORISM THREAT INFORMATION.—(I)
6 What type of information regarding United 7 States-based terrorism threats that are in-
8 spired by foreign terrorist organizations, or 9 the ideology thereof, and United States-10 based terrorism threats that are not in-
11 spired by foreign terrorist organizations, or 12 the ideology thereof, is currently captured
13 across the Federal, State, and local levels
14 of government, along with information
15 about such terrorism that is likely not cap-
16 tured or is lost at each level.

17 (II) Types of information under sub-
18 clause (I) may include cables, situational
19 reports, information reports, assessments,
20 digests, toolboxes, and bulletins.

21 (III) With respect to information de-
22 scribed in subclause (I)—

23 (aa) a comparison and noted dif-
24 ferences between both types of infor-
25 mation regarding threats of United

1 States-based terrorism not inspired by 2 foreign terrorist organizations and in-
3 spired by foreign terrorist organiza-
4 tions; and

5 (bb) any gaps and challenges to
6 addressing such differences.

7 (IV) The types of information cap-
8 tured at each level described in subclause
9 (I) while possibly labeled as other criminal 10 acts that could be relevant to threats of 11 terrorism not inspired by United States-12 based foreign terrorist organizations, in-13 cluding relevant intelligence, reporting, and 14 assessments.

15 (V) The effect of how different levels 16 of classified information affect the types of 17 threat information captured.

18 (ii) PARTNERS WHO RECEIVE THE IN-
19 FORMATION.—(I) Who receives information
20 regarding threats of United States-based 21 terrorism not inspired by foreign terrorist
22 organizations, and separately who receives 23 information regarding threats of United 24 States-based terrorism inspired by foreign 25 terrorist organizations, as well as those en-

1 tities and partners who do not currently 2 receive this information, including with re-
3 spect to Federal, State, local, and Tribal 4 government partners.

5 (II) With respect to threat informa-
6 tion described in subclause (I)—

7 (aa) a comparison and noted dif-
8 ferences between both information re-
9 garding threats of United States-
10 based terrorism not inspired by for-
11 eign terrorist organizations and in-
12 spired by foreign terrorist organiza-
13 tions; and

14 (bb) any gaps and challenges to
15 addressing such differences.

16 (III) The effect of how different levels 17 of classified information affect the receipt 18 of such information by various partners.

19 (iii) WHAT INFORMATION IS 20 SHARED.—(I) What information regarding 21 United States-based terrorism threats that
22 are inspired by foreign terrorist organiza-
23 tions, or the ideology thereof, and United
24 States-based terrorism threats that are not
25 inspired by foreign terrorist organizations,

1 or the ideology thereof, is currently shared
2 or could be shared with the partners iden-
3 tified under clause (ii), as well as informa-
4 tion the Commission identifies is not being 5 shared.

6 (II) With respect to threat informa-
7 tion described in subclause (I)—

8 (aa) a comparison and noted dif-
9 ferences between both information re-
10 garding threats of United States-
11 based terrorism not inspired by for-
12 eign terrorist organizations and in-
13 spired by foreign terrorist organiza-
14 tions; and

15 (bb) any gaps and challenges to
16 addressing such differences.

17 (III)(aa) An assessment of how infor-
18 mation regarding threats of United States-
19 based terrorism not inspired by foreign ter-
20 rorist organizations according to the Fed-
21 eral Bureau of Investigation's broad pro-
22 gram categories of racially motivated vio-
23 lent extremism, animal and eco violent ex-
24 tremism, antigovernment violent extre-
25 mism, and abortion violent extremism.

1 (bb) Assessment under item (aa) shall 2 be disaggregated by the following:

3 (AA) Types of racially motivated
4 violent extremism, specifically out-5 lining all threat information relating 6 to both white and black violent extre-
7 mism, and the numerical volume of 8 threat information under each sub-
9 category or subprogram.

10 (BB) Types of antigovernment
11 violent extremism to clearly illustrate 12 all threat information relating to mili-
13 tia, anarchist, and sovereign citizen
14 violent extremism and the numerical
15 volume of threat information under
16 each subcategory or subprogram.

17 (CC) Types of animal and eco
18 violent extremism and the numerical
19 volume of threat information under
20 each subcategory or subprogram.

21 (IV) Expansion of the categorization
22 described in subclause (III) to include cre-23 ation of a new category for new and 24 emerging threats, such as anti-immigrant

1 violent extremism, and incel violent extre-
2 mism.

3 (V) Effects of how sharing at dif-
4 ferent levels of classified information af-
5 fects what information is available to var-
6 ious partners.

7 (iv) HOW THREAT INFORMATION IS 8 SHARED.—(I) How information regarding
9 United States-based terrorism threats that
10 are inspired by foreign terrorist organiza-
11 tions, or the ideology thereof, and United
12 States-based terrorism threats that are not
13 inspired by foreign terrorist organizations,
14 or the ideology thereof, is shared, including 15 what the existing mechanisms are for shar-16 ing with respect to infrastructure or per-17 sonnel, disaggregated by—

18 (aa) what types of threat infor-
19 mation are received;

20 (bb) classification level; and

21 (cc) partner identified under 22 clause (ii).

23 (II) With respect to information de-
24 scribed in subclause (I)—

1 (aa) a comparison and noted dif-
2 ferences between both information re-
3 garding threats of United States-
4 based terrorism not inspired by for-
5 eign terrorist organizations and in-
6 spired by foreign terrorist organiza-
7 tions; and

8 (bb) any gaps and challenges to
9 address such differences.

10 (III) Existing mechanisms through 11 which information regarding threats of
12 United States-based terrorism threats that
13 are inspired by foreign terrorist organiza-
14 tions, or the ideology thereof, and United
15 States-based terrorism threats that are not
16 inspired by foreign terrorist organizations,
17 or the ideology thereof, is currently shared
18 within and across the Federal Government
19 with partners identified under clause (ii), 20 including with respect to the following:

21 (aa) Infrastructure, such as 22 Guardian, eGuardian, and the Na-
23 tional Crime Information Center.

24 (bb) Task forces, such as joint 25 terrorism task forces.

1 (cc) Professional staff who per-
2 form information sharing as part as 3 an official duty, such as liaison offi-
4 cers.

5 (dd) Threat information sharing
6 from Federal to State and local part-7 ners, from local partners to State and 8 Federal partners, and information
9 that is shared laterally between States
10 and between Federal agencies.

11 (ee) Threat information sharing
12 across geographic and interagency 13 lines, departments and agencies, and 14 information systems.

15 (IV) Effects of how sharing at dif-
16 ferent levels of classified information af-
17 fects how threat information is shared with 18 various partners.

19 (v) REDUNDANCIES, GAPS, AND DIF-
20 FERENCES.—(I) Redundancies, gaps, and 21 differences in information sharing regard-
22 ing threats of United States-based ter-
23 rorism threats that are inspired by foreign
24 terrorist organizations, or the ideology
25 thereof, and United States-based terrorism

1 threats that are not inspired by foreign
2 terrorist organizations, or the ideology
3 thereof.

4 (II) Causes of such redundancies,
5 gaps, and differences described in sub-
6 clause (I).

7 (III) Challenges to improvement with 8 respect to sharing described in subclause
9 (I).

10 (IV) How redundancies and gaps de-
11 scribed in subclause (I) differ between
12 United States-based terrorism threats that
13 are inspired by foreign terrorist organiza-
14 tions, or the ideology thereof, and United
15 States-based terrorism threats that are not
16 inspired by foreign terrorist organizations,
17 or the ideology thereof, disaggregated by 18 each category of partner identified under 19 clause (ii).

20 (V) How differences described in sub-
21 clause (IV) relate to challenges concerning 22 classification of threat information.

23 (C) UNITED STATES-BASED TERRORISM
24 TRAINING FINDINGS.—Findings relating to ex-25 isting Federal training concerning either or a

1 combination of both United States-based ter-
2 rorism threats that are inspired by foreign ter-3 rorist organizations, or the ideology thereof, or 4 United States-based terrorism threats that are 5 not inspired by foreign terrorist organizations, 6 or the ideology thereof, including the following:

7 (i)(I) What Federal, State, local, and 8 Tribal government training exists regard-
9 ing both United States-based terrorism
10 threats that are inspired by foreign ter-
11 rorist organizations, or the ideology there-
12 of, and United States-based terrorism
13 threats that are not inspired by foreign
14 terrorist organizations, or the ideology
15 thereof, disaggregated by categories and 16 classification differences.

17 (II) With respect to information de-
18 scribed in subclause (I)—

19 (aa) a comparison and noted dif-
20 ferences between both information re-
21 garding threats of United States-
22 based terrorism not inspired by for-
23 eign terrorist organizations and in-
24 spired by foreign terrorist organiza-
25 tions; and

1 (bb) any gaps and challenges to
2 address such differences.

3 (ii) Which partners identified under 4 subparagraph (B)(ii) receive what training 5 with respect to terrorism in the United 6 States.

7 (iii) What are the mechanisms, insti-
8 tutions, and training centers that provide 9 each of such trainings.

10 (iv) An examination of training con-
11 tent, who provides such training, how pro-12 viders of such training are vetted, how 13 such training is vetted or coordinated 14 among agencies, disaggregated by training
15 concerning United States-based terrorism
16 threats that are inspired by foreign ter-
17 rorist organizations, or the ideology there-
18 of, and United States-based terrorism
19 threats that are not inspired by foreign
20 terrorist organizations, or the ideology
21 thereof.

22 (v) Outlines of training redundancies, 23 gaps, and challenges in distribution, for 24 each type of training, and the impediments
25 to addressing such challenges.

1 (D) RECOMMENDATIONS.—

2 (i) THREAT INFORMATION SHAR-
3 ING.—Recommendations to address the 4 differences between information sharing
5 concerning United States-based terrorism
6 threats that are inspired by foreign ter-
7 rorist organizations, or the ideology there-
8 of, and United States-based terrorism
9 threats that are not inspired by foreign
10 terrorist organizations, or the ideology
11 thereof, including recommendations regard-
12 ing policy, programs, resources, and infra-13 structure needed to address challenges and 14 gaps indicated in the findings of the Com-15 mission. Such recommendations shall in-16 clude the following:

17 (I) INFORMATION RECIPIENTS.—

18 Recommendations to maintain, com-
19 mence, or expand coordination and 20 threat information sharing among 21 Federal, State, local, and Tribal gov-
22 ernment agencies and private entities
23 with protective or public safety re-24 sponsibilities who were identified as 25 needing access to such information,

1 including how gaps should be miti-
2 gated and how current challenges 3 should be addressed.

4 (II) CONTENT.—Recommendations to maintain, commence, or ex-
5 pand the type and categories of threat
6 information given to each of the Fed-
7 eral, State, local, and Tribal govern-
8 ment agencies and private entities de-
9 scribed in subclause (I).

11 (III) MECHANISMS.—Rec-
12 ommendations relating to the most ef-
13 fective use of existing Federal, State,
14 local, and Tribal mechanisms for cap-
15 turing and sharing relevant threat in-16 formation, including—

17 (aa) how gaps should be 18 mitigated;

19 (bb) how current challenges 20 should be addressed; and

21 (cc) proposals for new or ex-
22 panded mechanisms.

23 (IV) ELIMINATING REDUN-
24 DANCY.—Recommendations to elimi-
25 nate redundancy regarding who re-

1 ceives threat information, what infor-
2 mation is shared, mechanisms for how 3 information is shared, including rec-
4 ommendations to address the implica-
5 tions for redundancy if new measures 6 are enacted.

7 (V) FILLING GAPS.—Rec-
8 ommendations to address overarching
9 gaps to threat information sharing.

10 (ii) TRAINING PROGRAM.—Rec-
11 ommendations concerning training, includ-
12 ing the following:

13 (I) Recommendations for cre-
14 ating a Federal interagency terrorism
15 training program to train officers and 16 employees of government departments
17 and agencies and relevant private en-
18 tities in matters relating to threats, 19 trends, and tailored opportunities for 20 prevention concerning both United 21 States-based terrorism threats that 22 are inspired by foreign terrorist orga-23 nizations, or the ideology thereof, and 24 United States-based terrorism threats
25 that are not inspired by foreign ter-

1 rorist organizations, or the ideology
2 thereof.

3 (II) Recommendations concerning 4 additional training on investigation of 5 crimes concerning United States-
6 based terrorism threats that are not 7 inspired by foreign terrorist organiza-
8 tions, or the ideology thereof, under 9 current State and Federal legal struc-
10 tures and related crimes such as hate
11 crimes.

12 (III) Recommendations con-
13 cerning additional training on—

14 (aa) infrastructure and 15 mechanisms that allow law en-
16 forcement to report United 17 States-based terrorism threats
18 that are not inspired by foreign 19 terrorist organizations, or the 20 ideology thereof, and hate crimes; 21 and

22 (bb) information sharing
23 and dissemination.

24 (3) CONSIDERATION OF VARIOUS NEEDS.—In 25 developing the report required by paragraph (1), the

1 Commission shall take into account the different
2 needs of Federal, State, local, and Tribal law en-
3 forcement agencies across the United States.

4 (4) REVIEW OF DRAFTS.—Before submitting a 5 report under paragraph (1), the chairperson of the 6 Commission shall ensure that a draft of the report
7 is made available to the Director of National Intel-8 ligence, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the At-9 torney General, and the Director of the Federal Bu-
10 reau of Investigation for review and to obtain feed-
11 back from the various legal, civil rights, and privacy
12 offices under their respective jurisdictions.

13 (5) ANNEXES.—The report under paragraph 14 (1) shall include a separate annex for each of the 15 following that highlights respective efforts to include 16 nationwide Federal, State, and local input, where 17 relevant, in preparation of the report:

18 (A) The Office of the Director of National 19 Intelligence.
