10 (7 U.S.C. 1502(c)(2)) is amended—

1                             (1) by redesignating subparagraphs (A) and 2                             (B) as subparagraphs (C) and (D), respectively; and 3                             (2) by inserting before subparagraph (C) (as so 4                             redesignated) the following:

5                             “(A) DISCLOSURE IN THE PUBLIC INTER-6                             EST.—Notwithstanding paragraph (1) or any 7                             other provision of law, except as provided in 8                             subparagraph (B), the Secretary shall on an 9                             annual basis make available to the public—

10                             “(i)(I) the name of each individual or 11                             entity that obtained a federally subsidized 12                             crop insurance, livestock, or forage policy 13                             or plan of insurance during the previous 14                             reinsurance year;

15                             “(II) the amount of premium subsidy 16                             received by the individual or entity from 17                             the Corporation; and

18                             “(III) the amount of any Federal por-19                             tion of indemnities paid in the event of a 20                             loss for that reinsurance year for each pol-
21                             icy associated with that individual or enti-
22                             ty; and
