

Fiscal Note

H.B. 57

2021 General Session
Armed Forces Amendments
by Burton, J.

General, Education, and Uniform School Funds

JR4-4-101

	Ongoing	One-time	Total
Net GF/EF/USF (rev.-exp.)	$0	$0	$0

State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Revenues	FY 2021	FY 2022	FY 2023
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

Most members of the U.S. Space Force come from the U.S. Air Force and would already qualify for tax breaks and benefits existing in Utah law. To the extent that future consolidation from non-military government agencies into the U.S. Space Force leads to personnel shifting from civilian to military detail, this bill could lead to future revenue loss or state expenditure, but those amounts are not currently ascertainable.

Expenditures	FY 2021	FY 2022	FY 2023
Total Expenditures	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state expenditures.

Net All Funds	FY 2021	FY 2022	FY 2023
	$0	$0	$0

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Most members of the U.S. Space Force come from the U.S. Air Force and would already qualify for tax breaks and benefits existing in Utah law. To the extent that future consolidation from non-military government agencies into the U.S. Space Force leads to personnel shifting from civilian to military detail, this bill could lead to future local government revenue loss, but those amounts are not currently ascertainable.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Most members of the U.S. Space Force come from the U.S. Air Force and would already qualify for tax breaks and benefits existing in Utah law. To the extent that future consolidation from non-military government agencies into the U.S. Space Force leads to personnel shifting from civilian to military detail, this bill could lead to future tax liability changes or shifts for businesses and individuals, but those amounts are not currently ascertainable.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
