Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this bill could impact Local Education Agencies by requiring them to provide two annual trainings for participating teachers. One training to provide school-specific classroom response and the other for firearm competency. The firearms training could cost approximately $110 per participating teacher, per year, and the annual classroom response training will cost $160 per school, per year. LEAs may opt to use local law enforcement agencies to provide these services as outlined in the bill.

Based on a hypothetical scenario assuming 10% of teachers participate in the program, this bill could cost an ongoing amount of $534,500 beginning in FY 2025, for the annual trainings. Actual impacts will depend on the number of participants each year.

Enactment of this bill will also require schools to post additional signage at the school at approximately $100 per school.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
