Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Individuals who adopt a qualifying child may be eligible for either a refundable or nonrefundable tax credit equal to the amount of the claimant's adoption expenses for which a federal tax credit was not claimed. An estimated 437 individuals may claim the state credit in tax year 2020. The impact of the credit will depend on the claimant's adoption expenses and state tax liability. An estimated 215 taxpayers could lose a $1,000 special needs adoptions tax credit.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
