(b) "Company" includes any wholly-owned subsidiary, majority-owned subsidiary, parent company, or affiliate of an entity described in Subsection (2)(a).

Section 2. Section 13-63-201 is enacted to read:

Part 2. Prohibitions

13-63-201. Coordinated elimination of boycotted company's options to obtain a product or service prohibited -- Civil action -- Damages -- Exceptions.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (4), a company that offers a product or service may not, with the specific intent of destroying a boycotted company and without an ordinary business purpose, coordinate or conspire with another company to eliminate the viable options for the boycotted company to obtain the product or service.

(2) (a) A person who is injured or is threatened with injury to the person's business or property by a violation of Subsection (1) may bring an action for injunctive relief or damages.

(b) In an action for a violation of Subsection (1), the court:

(i) shall award attorney fees and costs to the prevailing party; and

(ii) may not reduce a judgment to an amount less than the amount of actual damages sustained.

(3) A person may not recover damages under this section from:

(a) a political subdivision;

(b) an official or employee of a political subdivision acting in an official capacity; or

(c) another person based on an official action directed by a political subdivision or a political subdivision's official or employee acting in an official capacity.

(4) This section does not prohibit a person from engaging in an activity to the extent the activity is regulated or supervised by state government officers or agencies under the laws of this state or federal government officers or agencies under the laws of the United States.

Section 3. Effective date.

This bill takes effect on July 1, 2023.
