Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

To the extent that prevailing claims are brought by individuals against certain entities described in the bill, these entities could pay the prevailing claimants in damages, attorney fees and costs. However, the total impact cannot be determined due to a number of unknown factors, including the number of actions, the representation and litigation required, and damages awarded.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
