Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 9-8-404 is amended to read:

9-8-404. Agency responsibilities -- State historic preservation officer to comment on undertaking -- Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office may require joint analysis.

30 (1) (a) Before ~~[making a final agency decision authorizing the expenditure of state~~
31 ~~funds or providing financial assistance for an undertaking,]~~ approving any undertaking, an 32 agency shall:

- 33 (i) take into account the effect of the undertaking on any historic property; and
- 34 (ii) provide the state historic preservation officer with a written evaluation of the 35 undertaking's effect on any historic property.

36 (b) The state historic preservation officer shall provide to the agency a written
37 comment on the agency's determination of effect within 30 days after the day on which the state
38 historic preservation officer receives a written evaluation described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii).

39 (c) If the written evaluation described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) demonstrates that there is 40 an adverse effect to a historic property, the agency shall enter into a formal written agreement
41 with the state historic preservation officer describing how each adverse effect will be mitigated
42 before the agency may expend state funds or provide financial assistance for the undertaking.

43 (d) The state historic preservation officer shall make available to the Public Lands
44 Policy Coordinating Office a list of undertakings on which an agency or federal agency has 45 requested the state historic preservation officer's or the Antiquities Section's advice or 46 consultation.

47 (e) The Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office may request the joint analysis
48 described in Subsections (2)(c) and (d) of any proposed undertaking on which the state historic 49 preservation officer or Antiquities Section is providing advice or consultation.

50 (2) (a) If the state historic preservation officer does not concur with the agency's 51 written evaluation required by Subsection (1)(a)(ii), the state historic preservation officer shall 52 inform the Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office of any objections.

53 (b) The Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office shall review the state historic 54 preservation officer's objections and determine whether or not to initiate the joint analysis
55 established in Subsections (2)(c) and (d) within 30 days after the day on which the state historic 56 preservation officer informs the Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office of the objections.

57 (c) If the Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office determines further analysis is

58 necessary, the Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office shall, jointly with the agency and the 59 state historic preservation officer, analyze:

60 (i) the cost of the undertaking, excluding costs attributable to the identification,
61 potential recovery, or excavation of historic properties;

62 (ii) the ownership of the land involved;

63 (iii) the likelihood of the presence and the nature and type of historical properties that 64 may be affected by the expenditure or undertaking; and

65 (iv) clear and distinct alternatives for the identification, recovery, or excavation of 66 historic properties, including ways to maximize the amount of information recovered and 67 report that information at current standards of scientific rigor.

68 (d) The Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office, the agency, and the state historic 69 preservation officer shall also consider as part of the joint analysis:

70 (i) the estimated costs of the alternatives in Subsection (2)(c)(iv) in total and as a 71 percentage of the total cost of the undertaking; and

72 (ii) at least one plan for the identification, recovery, or excavation of historic properties
73 that does not substantially increase the cost of the proposed undertaking.

74 (3) (a) (i) If the state historic preservation officer concurs with the agency's evaluation
75 or if the Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office determines that the joint analysis is 76 unnecessary, the state historic preservation officer shall, no later than 30 calendar days after 77 receiving the agency's evaluation, provide formal comments on the agency's evaluation.

78 (ii) If a joint analysis is conducted, the state historic preservation officer shall provide
79 formal comments on the agency's evaluation no later than 30 calendar days after the conclusion
80 of the joint analysis.

81 (b) The state historic preservation officer shall ensure that the comments include the 82 results of any joint analysis conducted under Subsection (2).

83 (c) If a joint analysis is not conducted, the state historic preservation officer's
84 comments may include advice about ways to maximize the amount of historic, scientific,
85 archaeological, anthropological, and educational information recovered, in addition to the

86 physical recovery of artifacts and the reporting of archaeological information at current 87 standards of scientific rigor.

88 Section 2. Section 9-18-102 is amended to read:

89 9-18-102. Martin Luther King, Jr. Civil Rights Support Restricted Account.
