29 ENACTS:

30 76-9-1101, Utah Code Annotated 1953

32 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

33 Section 1. Section 76-9-1101 is enacted to read:

34 Part 11. Failure to Provide Assistance

35 76-9-1101. Failure to provide assistance.

36 (1) As used in this section:

37 (a) (i) "Assistance" means contacting paramedics, fire protection, law enforcement, or 38 other appropriate emergency services.

39 (ii) "Assistance" does not include action that places the individual taking the action, or 40 another individual, in danger.

41 (b) "Emergency" means that an individual is suffering from serious bodily injury and is 42 in need of assistance.

43 (c) "Serious bodily injury" means injury that involves a substantial risk of death,
44 unconsciousness, extreme physical pain, protracted and obvious disfigurement, or protracted
45 loss or impairment of the function of a bodily member, organ, or mental faculty.

46 (2) An individual is guilty of a class B misdemeanor if the individual:

47 (a) observes that a crime has occurred or is occurring or that an emergency is
48 occurring;

49 (b) has personal knowledge that another individual is suffering serious bodily injury
50 resulting from a crime or emergency;

51 (c) is able to provide reasonable assistance to the individual described in Subsection
52 (2)(b); and

53 (d) fails to provide reasonable assistance to the individual described in Subsection
54 (2)(b).

55 (3) An individual is not guilty of violating Subsection (2) if another individual has
56 already provided or is providing reasonable assistance to the individual described in Subsection
57 (2)(b).

58 (4) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of state law, a prosecutor may not use an

59 individual's violation of Subsection (2) as the basis for charging the individual with another
60 offense.

61 (5) Subsection (2) does not apply to the extent that an individual is prohibited from
62 providing assistance by a statutory or common law privilege.

63 Section 2. Section 78B-4-501 is amended to read:

64 78B-4-501. Good Samaritan Law.

65 (1) As used in this section:

66 (a) "Child" means an individual of such an age that a reasonable person would perceive
67 the individual as unable to open the door of a locked motor vehicle, but in any case younger
68 than 18 years of age.

69 (b) "Emergency" means an unexpected occurrence involving injury, threat of injury, or 70 illness to a person or the public, including motor vehicle accidents, disasters, actual or 71 threatened discharges, removal or disposal of hazardous materials, and other accidents or 72 events of a similar nature.

73 (c) "Emergency care" includes actual assistance or advice offered to avoid, mitigate, or
74 attempt to mitigate the effects of an emergency.

75 (d) "First responder" means a state or local:

76 (i) law enforcement officer, as defined in Section 53-13-103;

77 (ii) firefighter, as defined in Section 34A-3-113; or

78 (iii) emergency medical service provider, as defined in Section 26-8a-102.

79 (e) "Motor vehicle" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-1a-102.

80 (2) A person who renders emergency care at or near the scene of, or during, an
81 emergency, gratuitously and in good faith, or as required under Section 76-9-1101, is not liable
82 for any civil damages or penalties as a result of any act or omission by the person rendering the 83 emergency care, unless the person is grossly negligent or caused the emergency.

84 (3) (a) A person who gratuitously, and in good faith, assists a governmental agency or
85 political subdivision in an activity described in Subsections (3)(a)(i) through (iii) is not liable
86 for any civil damages or penalties as a result of any act or omission, unless the person
87 rendering assistance is grossly negligent in:

88 (i) implementing measures to control the causes of epidemic and communicable
89 diseases and other conditions significantly affecting the public health, or necessary to protect

90 the public health as set out in Title 26A, Chapter 1, Local Health Departments;

91 (ii) investigating and controlling suspected bioterrorism and disease as set out in Title
92 26, Chapter 23b, Detection of Public Health Emergencies Act; and

93 (iii) responding to a national, state, or local emergency, a public health emergency as
94 defined in Section 26-23b-102, or a declaration by the president of the United States or other
95 federal official requesting public health-related activities.

96 (b) The immunity in this Subsection (3) is in addition to any immunity or protection in
97 state or federal law that may apply.

98 (4) (a) A person who uses reasonable force to enter a locked and unattended motor
99 vehicle to remove a confined child is not liable for damages in a civil action if all of the 100 following apply:

101 (i) the person has a good faith belief that the confined child is in imminent danger of 102 suffering physical injury or death unless the confined child is removed from the motor vehicle;

103 (ii) the person determines that the motor vehicle is locked and there is no reasonable
104 manner in which the person can remove the confined child from the motor vehicle;

105 (iii) before entering the motor vehicle, the person notifies a first responder of the 106 confined child;

107 (iv) the person does not use more force than is necessary under the circumstances to 108 enter the motor vehicle and remove the confined child from the vehicle; and

109 (v) the person remains with the child until a first responder arrives at the motor vehicle.

110 (b) A person is not immune from civil liability under this Subsection (4) if the person
111 fails to abide by any of the provisions of Subsection (4)(a) or commits any unnecessary or 112 malicious damage to the motor vehicle.
