34 It is hereby declared that the practice of discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, 35 pregnancy, religion, ancestry, or national origin in business establishments or places of public 36 accommodation or in enterprises regulated by the state endangers the health, safety, and general
37 welfare of this state and its inhabitants; and that such discrimination in business establishments
38 or places of public accommodation or in enterprises regulated by the state, violates the public
39 policy of this state. It is the purpose of this act to assure all citizens full and equal availability 40 of all goods, services and facilities offered by business establishments and places of public 41 accommodation and enterprises regulated by the state without discrimination because of race, 42 color, sex, pregnancy, religion, ancestry, or national origin. The rules of common law that 43 statutes in derogation thereof shall be strictly construed has no application to this act. This act 44 shall be liberally construed with a view to promote the policy and purposes of the act and to 45 promote justice. The remedies provided herein are not exclusive but are in addition to any other
