30 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

31 Section 1. Section 77-27-5 is amended to read:

32 77-27-5. Board of Pardons and Parole authority.

33 (1) (a) The Board of Pardons and Parole shall determine by majority decision when and 34 under what conditions, subject to this chapter and other laws of the state, persons committed to 35 serve sentences in class A misdemeanor cases at penal or correctional facilities which are under 36 the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, and all felony cases except treason or 37 impeachment or as otherwise limited by law, may be released upon parole, pardoned, ordered
 38 to pay restitution, or have their fines, forfeitures, or restitution remitted, or their sentences
 39 commuted or terminated.

40 (b) The board may sit together or in panels to conduct hearings. The chair shall 41 appoint members to the panels in any combination and in accordance with rules promulgated
 42 by the board, except in hearings involving commutation and pardons. The chair may 43 participate on any panel and when doing so is chair of the panel. The chair of the board may 44 designate the chair for any other panel.

45 (c) No restitution may be ordered, no fine, forfeiture, or restitution remitted, no parole, 46 pardon, or commutation granted or sentence terminated, except after a full hearing before the 47 board or the board's appointed examiner in open session. Any action taken under this 48 subsection other than by a majority of the board shall be affirmed by a majority of the board.

49 (d) A commutation or pardon may be granted only after a full hearing before the board.

50 (e) The board may determine restitution as provided in Section 77-27-6 and Subsection
 51 77-38a-302\(5\)\(d\)\(~~ii~~\)\(iii\)\(A\).

52 (2) (a) In the case of original parole grant hearings, rehearings, and parole revocation 53 hearings, timely prior notice of the time and location of the hearing shall be given to the 54 defendant, the county or district attorney's office responsible for prosecution of the case, the 55 sentencing court, law enforcement officials responsible for the defendant's arrest and 56 conviction, and whenever possible, the victim or the victim's family.

57 (b) Notice to the victim, his representative, or his family shall include information
58 provided in Section 77-27-9.5, and any related rules made by the board under that section.
59 This information shall be provided in terms that are reasonable for the lay person to 60 understand.

61 (3) Decisions of the board in cases involving paroles, pardons, commutations or 62 terminations of sentence, restitution, or remission of fines or forfeitures are final and are not 63 subject to judicial review. Nothing in this section prevents the obtaining or enforcement of a 64 civil judgment, including restitution as provided in Section 77-27-6.

65 (4) This chapter may not be construed as a denial of or limitation of the governor's 66 power to grant respite or reprieves in all cases of convictions for offenses against the state,
67 except treason or conviction on impeachment. However, respites or reprieves may not extend 68 beyond the next session of the Board of Pardons and Parole and the board, at that session, shall 69 continue or terminate the respite or reprieve, or it may commute the punishment, or pardon the 70 offense as provided. In the case of conviction for treason, the governor may suspend execution
71 of the sentence until the case is reported to the Legislature at its next session. The Legislature 72 shall then either pardon or commute the sentence, or direct its execution.

73 (5) In determining when, where, and under what conditions offenders serving sentences
74 may be paroled, pardoned, have restitution ordered, or have their fines or forfeitures remitted, 75 or their sentences commuted or terminated, the board shall consider whether the persons have 76 made or are prepared to make restitution as ascertained in accordance with the standards and 77 procedures of Section 77-38a-302, as a condition of any parole, pardon, remission of fines or 78 forfeitures, or commutation or termination of sentence.

79 (6) In determining whether parole may be terminated, the board shall consider the 80 offense committed by the parolee, the parole period as provided in Section 76-3-202, and in 81 accordance with Section 77-27-13.

82 Section 2. Section 77-27-6 is amended to read:

83 77-27-6. Payment of restitution.

84 (1) When the Board of Pardons and Parole orders the release on parole of an inmate
85 who has been sentenced to make restitution pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 38a, Crime Victims
86 Restitution Act, or whom the board has ordered to make restitution, and all or a portion of 87 restitution is still owing, the board may establish a schedule, including both complete and

88 court-ordered restitution, by which payment of the restitution shall be made, or order
89 compensatory or other service in lieu of or in combination with restitution. In fixing the 90 schedule and supervising the paroled offender's performance, the board may consider the 91 factors specified in Section 77-38a-302.

92 (2) (a) The board may impose any court order for restitution.

93 (b) In accordance with Subsection 77-38a-302(5)(d)(ii)(A), the board may order
94 that a defendant make restitution for pecuniary damages that were not determined by the court,
95 unless the board applying the criteria as set forth in Section 77-38a-302 determines that 96 restitution is inappropriate.

97 (c) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(d), the board shall make all orders of 98 restitution within 60 days after the termination or expiration of the defendant's sentence.

99 (d) If, upon termination or expiration of a defendant's sentence, the board has 100 continuing jurisdiction over the defendant for a separate criminal offense, the board may defer
101 making an order of restitution until termination or expiration of all sentences for that 102 defendant.

103 (3) The board may also make orders of restitution for recovery of any or all costs
104 incurred by the Department of Corrections or the state or any other agency arising out of the 105 defendant's needs or conduct.

106 (4) If the defendant, upon termination or expiration of the sentence owes outstanding 107 fines, restitution, or other assessed costs, or if the board makes an order of restitution within 60 108 days after the termination or expiration of the defendant's sentence, the matter shall be referred 109 to the district court for civil collection remedies. The Board of Pardons and Parole shall 110 forward a restitution order to the sentencing court to be entered on the judgment docket. The 111 entry shall constitute a lien and is subject to the same rules as a judgment for money in a civil 112 judgment.

113 Section 3. Section 77-38-3 is amended to read:

114 77-38-3. Notification to victims -- Initial notice, election to receive subsequent 115 notices -- Form of notice -- Protected victim information -- Pretrial criminal no contact 116 order.

117 (1) Within seven days of the filing of felony criminal charges against a defendant, the 118 prosecuting agency shall provide an initial notice to reasonably identifiable and locatable

119 victims of the crime contained in the charges, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

120 (2) The initial notice to the victim of a crime shall provide information about electing 121 to receive notice of subsequent important criminal justice hearings listed in Subsections
122 77-38-2\(5\)\(a\) through (f) and rights under this chapter.

123 (3) The prosecuting agency shall provide notice to a victim of a crime;

124 (a) for the important criminal justice hearings, provided in Subsections 77-38-2\(5\)\(a\) 125 through (f), which the victim has requested[-]; and 126 (b) for restitution requests to be submitted as provided in Subsection 77-38a-302\(5\)\(d\).

127 (4) (a) The responsible prosecuting agency may provide initial and subsequent notices
128 in any reasonable manner, including telephonically, electronically, orally, or by means of a 129 letter or form prepared for this purpose.

130 (b) In the event of an unforeseen important criminal justice hearing, listed in 131 Subsections 77-38-2\(5\)\(a\) through (f) for which a victim has requested notice, a good faith 132 attempt to contact the victim by telephone shall be considered sufficient notice, provided that 133 the prosecuting agency subsequently notifies the victim of the result of the proceeding.

134 (5) (a) The court shall take reasonable measures to ensure that its scheduling practices
135 for the proceedings provided in Subsections 77-38-2\(5\)\(a\) through (f) permit an opportunity for 136 victims of crimes to be notified.

137 (b) The court shall also consider whether any notification system it might use to 138 provide notice of judicial proceedings to defendants could be used to provide notice of those 139 same proceedings to victims of crimes.

140 (6) A defendant or, if it is the moving party, Adult Probation and Parole, shall give 141 notice to the responsible prosecuting agency of any motion for modification of any 142 determination made at any of the important criminal justice hearings provided in Subsections 143 77-38-2\(5\)\(a\) through (f) in advance of any requested court hearing or action so that the 144 prosecuting agency may comply with its notification obligation.

145 (7) (a) Notice to a victim of a crime shall be provided by the Board of Pardons and 146 Parole for the important criminal justice hearing provided in Subsection 77-38-2\(5\)\(g\).

147 (b) The board may provide notice in any reasonable manner, including telephonically,
148 electronically, orally, or by means of a letter or form prepared for this purpose.

149 (8) Prosecuting agencies and the Board of Pardons and Parole are required to give

150 notice to a victim of a crime for the proceedings provided in Subsections 77-38-2(5)(a) through 151 (f) only where the victim has responded to the initial notice, requested notice of subsequent 152 proceedings, and provided a current address and telephone number if applicable.

153 (9) (a) Law enforcement and criminal justice agencies shall refer any requests for 154 notice or information about crime victim rights from victims to the responsible prosecuting 155 agency.

156 (b) In a case in which the Board of Pardons and Parole is involved, the responsible 157 prosecuting agency shall forward any request for notice it has received from a victim to the 158 Board of Pardons and Parole.

159 (10) In all cases where the number of victims exceeds 10, the responsible prosecuting
160 agency may send any notices required under this chapter in its discretion to a representative 161 sample of the victims.

162 (11) (a) A victim's address, telephone number, and victim impact statement maintained
163 by a peace officer, prosecuting agency, Youth Parole Authority, Division of Juvenile Justice
164 Services, Department of Corrections, and Board of Pardons and Parole, for purposes of 165 providing notice under this section, is classified as protected as provided in Subsection 166 63G-2-305(10).

167 (b) The victim's address, telephone number, and victim impact statement is available
168 only to the following persons or entities in the performance of their duties:

- 169 (i) a law enforcement agency, including the prosecuting agency;
- 170 (ii) a victims' right committee as provided in Section 77-37-5;
- 171 (iii) a governmentally sponsored victim or witness program;
- 172 (iv) the Department of Corrections;
- 173 (v) the Utah Office for Victims of Crime;
- 174 (vi) the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice; and
- 175 (vii) the Board of Pardons and Parole.

176 (12) The notice provisions as provided in this section do not apply to misdemeanors as 177 provided in Section 77-38-5 and to important juvenile justice hearings as provided in Section 178 77-38-2.

179 (13) (a) When a defendant is charged with a felony crime under Sections 76-5-301
180 through 76-5-310 regarding kidnapping, human trafficking, and human smuggling; Sections

181 76-5-401 through 76-5-413 regarding sexual offenses; or Section 76-10-1306 regarding 182 aggravated exploitation of prostitution, the court may, during any court hearing where the 183 defendant is present, issue a pretrial criminal no contact order:

184 (i) prohibiting the defendant from harassing, telephoning, contacting, or otherwise
185 communicating with the victim directly or through a third party;

186 (ii) ordering the defendant to stay away from the residence, school, place of 187 employment of the victim, and the premises of any of these, or any specified place frequented
188 by the victim or any designated family member of the victim directly or through a third party; 189 and

190 (iii) ordering any other relief that the court considers necessary to protect and provide 191 for the safety of the victim and any designated family or household member of the victim.

192 (b) Violation of a pretrial criminal no contact order issued pursuant to this section is a 193 third degree felony.

194 (c) (i) The court shall provide to the victim a certified copy of any pretrial criminal no
195 contact order that has been issued if the victim can be located with reasonable effort.

196 (ii) The court shall also transmit the pretrial criminal no contact order to the statewide
197 domestic violence network in accordance with Section 78B-7-113.

198 Section 4. Section 77-38a-102 is amended to read:

199 77-38a-102. Definitions.

200 As used in this chapter:

201 (1) "Conviction" includes a:

202 (a) judgment of guilt;

203 (b) a plea of guilty; or

204 (c) a plea of no contest.

205 (2) "Criminal activities" means:

206 (a) any offense of which the defendant is convicted; or

207 (b) any other criminal conduct for which the defendant admits responsibility to the 208 sentencing court with or without an admission of committing the criminal conduct.

209 (3) "Department" means the Department of Corrections.

210 (4) "Diversion" means suspending criminal proceedings prior to conviction on the 211 condition that a defendant agree to participate in a rehabilitation program, make restitution to

212 the victim, or fulfill some other condition.

213 (5) "Party" means the prosecutor, defendant, or department involved in a prosecution.

214 (6) "Pecuniary damages" means all demonstrable economic injury, whether or not yet
215 incurred, including those which a person could recover in a civil action arising out of the facts 216 or events constituting the defendant's criminal activities and includes the fair market value of 217 property taken, destroyed, broken, or otherwise harmed, and losses including lost earnings, 218 including those and other travel expenses reasonably incurred as a result of participation in 219 criminal proceedings, and medical and other expenses, but excludes punitive or exemplary 220 damages and pain and suffering.

221 (7) "Plea agreement" means an agreement entered between the prosecution and 222 defendant setting forth the special terms and conditions and criminal charges upon which the 223 defendant will enter a plea of guilty or no contest.

224 (8) "Plea disposition" means an agreement entered into between the prosecution and 225 defendant including diversion, plea agreement, plea in abeyance agreement, or any agreement 226 by which the defendant may enter a plea in any other jurisdiction or where charges are 227 dismissed without a plea.

228 (9) "Plea in abeyance" means an order by a court, upon motion of the prosecution and 229 the defendant, accepting a plea of guilty or of no contest from the defendant but not, at that 230 time, entering judgment of conviction against him nor imposing sentence upon him on 231 condition that he comply with specific conditions as set forth in a plea in abeyance agreement.

232 (10) "Plea in abeyance agreement" means an agreement entered into between the 233 prosecution and the defendant setting forth the specific terms and conditions upon which,
234 following acceptance of the agreement by the court, a plea may be held in abeyance.

235 (11) "Restitution" means full, partial, or nominal payment for pecuniary damages to a
236 victim, including prejudgment interest, the accrual of interest from the time of sentencing,
237 insured damages, reimbursement for payment of a reward, and payment for expenses to a
238 governmental entity for extradition or transportation and as may be further defined by law.

239 (12) (a) "Reward" means a sum of money:

240 (i) offered to the public for information leading to the arrest and conviction of an 241 offender; and

242 (ii) that has been paid to a person or persons who provide this information, except that 243 the person receiving the payment may not be a codefendant, an accomplice, or a bounty hunter.

244 (b) "Reward" does not include any amount paid in excess of the sum offered to the 245 public.

246 (13) "Screening" means the process used by a prosecuting attorney to terminate 247 investigative action, proceed with prosecution, move to dismiss a prosecution that has been 248 commenced, or cause a prosecution to be diverted.

249 (14) (a) "Victim" means any person or entity, including the Utah Office for Victims of 250 Crime, who the court determines has suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the defendant's 251 criminal activities.

252 (b) "Victim" may not include a codefendant or accomplice.

253 Section 5. Section 77-38a-302 is amended to read:

254 77-38a-302. Restitution criteria.

255 (1) When a defendant is convicted of criminal activity that has resulted in pecuniary 256 damages, in addition to any other sentence it may impose, the court shall order that the 257 defendant make restitution to victims of crime as provided in this chapter, or for conduct for 258 which the defendant has agreed to make restitution as part of a plea disposition. For purposes
259 of restitution, a victim has the meaning as defined in Subsection 77-38a-102(14) and in 260 determining whether restitution is appropriate, the court shall follow the criteria and procedures
261 as provided in Subsections (2) through (5).

262 (2) In determining restitution, the court shall determine complete restitution and 263 court-ordered restitution.

264 (a) "Complete restitution" means restitution necessary to compensate a victim for all 265 losses caused by the defendant.

266 (b) "Court-ordered restitution" means the restitution the court having criminal 267 jurisdiction orders the defendant to pay as a part of the criminal sentence [~~at the time of~~ 268 ~~sentencing or within one year after sentencing~~].

269 (c) Complete restitution and court-ordered restitution shall be determined as provided
270 in Subsection (5).

271 (3) If the court determines that restitution is appropriate or inappropriate under this 272 part, the court shall make the reasons for the decision part of the court record.

273 (4) If the defendant objects to the imposition, amount, or distribution of the restitution,

274 the court shall allow the defendant a full hearing on the issue.

275 (5) (a) For the purpose of determining restitution for an offense, the offense shall 276 include any criminal conduct admitted by the defendant to the sentencing court or to which the 277 defendant agrees to pay restitution. A victim of an offense that involves as an element a 278 scheme, a conspiracy, or a pattern of criminal activity, includes any person directly harmed by 279 the defendant's criminal conduct in the course of the scheme, conspiracy, or pattern.

280 (b) In determining the monetary sum and other conditions for complete restitution, the 281 court shall consider all relevant facts, including:

282 (i) the cost of the damage or loss if the offense resulted in damage to or loss or 283 destruction of property of a victim of the offense;

284 (ii) the cost of necessary medical and related professional services and devices relating 285 to physical or mental health care, including nonmedical care and treatment rendered in 286 accordance with a method of healing recognized by the law of the place of treatment;

287 (iii) the cost of necessary physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation;

288 (iv) the income lost by the victim as a result of the offense [~~if the offense resulted in~~ 289 ~~bodily injury to a victim~~];

290 (v) [~~up to five days of~~] the individual victim's reasonable determinable wages that are 291 lost due to theft of or damage to tools or equipment items of a trade that were owned by the 292 victim and were essential to the victim's current employment at the time of the offense; and

293 (vi) the cost of necessary funeral and related services if the offense resulted in the death 294 of a victim.

295 (c) In determining the monetary sum and other conditions for court-ordered restitution,
296 the court shall consider:

297 (i) the factors listed in Subsections (5)(a) and (b);

298 (ii) the financial resources of the defendant, as disclosed in the financial declaration
299 described in Section 77-38a-204;

300 (iii) the burden that payment of restitution will impose, with regard to the other 301 obligations of the defendant;

302 (iv) the ability of the defendant to pay restitution on an installment basis or on other 303 conditions to be fixed by the court;

304 (v) the rehabilitative effect on the defendant of the payment of restitution and the

305 method of payment; and

306 (vi) other circumstances that the court determines may make restitution inappropriate.

307 ~~[(d) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(d)(ii), the court shall determine complete~~

308 ~~restitution and court-ordered restitution, and shall make all restitution orders at the time of~~

309 ~~sentencing if feasible, otherwise within one year after sentencing.]~~

310 (d) (i) The prosecuting agency shall submit all requests for complete restitution and

311 court ordered restitution to the court at the time of sentencing if feasible, otherwise within one

312 year after sentencing.

313 (ii) If a defendant is placed on probation pursuant to Section 77-18-1:

314 (A) the court shall determine complete restitution and court ordered restitution; and

315 (B) the time period for determination of complete restitution and court ordered

316 restitution may be extended by the court upon a finding of good cause, but may not exceed the 317 period of the probation term served by the defendant.

318 (iii) If the defendant is committed to prison:

319 ~~[(ii) Any]~~ (A) any pecuniary damages that have not been determined by the court

320 within one year after sentencing may be determined by the Board of Pardons and Parole[-]; and

321 ~~[(e) The]~~ (B) the Board of Pardons and Parole may, within one year after sentencing, 322 refer an order of judgment and commitment back to the court for determination of restitution.
