25                   Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

26                   WHEREAS, the collapse of democratic governance and the proliferation of political 27 corruption, criminal violence, failed economic policies, and hyperinflation have created a

28 devastating humanitarian crisis in Venezuela;

29 WHEREAS, the majority of Venezuela's citizens lack access to essential medicines and 30 basic food supplies;

31 WHEREAS, in September 2020 a United Nations mission found that Nicolás Maduro
32 and his regime have carried out thousands of extrajudicial murders of peaceful dissidents and 33 political opponents since Maduro's rise to power in 2013;

34 WHEREAS, the Maduro regime has a demonstrated track record of holding fraudulent
35 elections over the last five years;

36 WHEREAS, on December 6, 2020, the regime of Nicolás Maduro held fraudulent
37 legislative elections for Venezuela's National Assembly that did not comply with international 38 standards for free, fair, and transparent electoral processes;

39 WHEREAS, the Maduro regime has detained hundreds of political prisoners in 40 dangerous and inhumane conditions across Venezuela, including a Utah native, who was freed
41 in 2018;

42 WHEREAS, the Maduro regime's security forces continue to engage in torture and 43 sexual abuse of political prisoners and members of their families to stoke terror and repress
44 pro-democracy efforts in Venezuela;

45 WHEREAS, the Maduro regime has increased arbitrary detention and intimidation of 46 journalists, frontline workers, and legislators to silence criticism of the regime's mishandling of 47 the COVID-19 pandemic;

48 WHEREAS, the average Venezuelan lost 24 pounds of body weight in 2017 due to 49 widespread poverty and food shortages;

50 WHEREAS, the Maduro regime has consistently restricted the ability of nonprofits and 51 humanitarian aid organizations to assist Venezuelans in need of basic foodstuffs and hygiene
52 items;

53 WHEREAS, to date, these deteriorating conditions have led over 5.6 million
54 Venezuelans to leave their country, making it the second-largest external displacement crisis in 55 the world; and

56 WHEREAS, Utah is home to thousands of Venezuelan asylees, refugees, and citizens
57 of Venezuelan descent, many of whom long to return to their native country if political 58 conditions improve;

59           NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the 60 Governor concurring therein, strongly condemns Nicolás Maduro's regime for its violation of 61 the basic human rights of countless Venezuelans.

62           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor call upon the 63 government of Venezuela to reject socialism and restore democracy.

64           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor support and stand
65 in solidarity with the people of Venezuela and their fight to achieve freedom and democracy.

66           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor urge the United 67 States federal government to take substantive action to ensure Maduro's resignation and a 68 peaceful transition to democracy in Venezuela.

69           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor encourage Utah
70 schools and higher learning institutions to teach Utah students about these current events and 71 the dangers of socialism and authoritarian regimes.

72           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the members of 73 Utah's congressional delegation.
