47 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

48 Section 1. Section 57-22-5.1 is amended to read:

49 57-22-5.1. Crime victim's right to new locks -- Domestic violence victim's right to
50 terminate rental agreement -- Limits an owner relating to assistance from public safety
51 agency.

52 (1) As used in this section:

53 (a) "Crime victim" means a victim of:

- 54 (i) domestic violence, as defined in Section 77-36-1;
- 55 (ii) stalking, as defined in Section 76-5-106.5;

56 (iii) a crime under Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses;
57 (iv) burglary or aggravated burglary under Section 76-6-202 or 76-6-203; or 58 (v) dating violence, [~~consisting of verbal, emotional, psychological, physical, or sexual~~
59 ~~abuse of one person by another in a dating relationship~~] as defined in Section 78B-7-402.

60 (b) "Public safety agency" means a governmental entity that provides fire protection,
61 law enforcement, ambulance, medical, or similar service.

62 (2) An acceptable form of documentation of an act listed in Subsection (1) is:

63 (a) a protective order protecting the renter issued pursuant to Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part
64 1, Cohabitant Abuse Act, subsequent to a hearing of which the petitioner and respondent have 65 been given notice under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 1, Cohabitant Abuse Act; or

66 (b) a copy of a police report documenting an act listed in Subsection (1).

67 (3) (a) A renter who is a crime victim may require the renter's owner to install a new
68 lock to the renter's residential rental unit if the renter:

69 (i) provides the owner with an acceptable form of documentation of an act listed in 70 Subsection (1); and

71 (ii) pays for the cost of installing the new lock.

72 (b) An owner may comply with Subsection (3)(a) by:

73 (i) rekeying the lock if the lock is in good working condition; or

74 (ii) changing the entire locking mechanism with a locking mechanism of equal or 75 greater quality than the lock being replaced.

76 (c) An owner who installs a new lock under Subsection (3)(a) may retain a copy of the 77 key that opens the new lock.

78 (d) Notwithstanding any rental agreement, an owner who installs a new lock under 79 Subsection (3)(a) shall refuse to provide a copy of the key that opens the new lock to the 80 perpetrator of the act listed in Subsection (1).

81 (e) Notwithstanding Section 78B-6-814, if an owner refuses to provide a copy of the 82 key under Subsection (3)(d) to a perpetrator who is not barred from the residential rental unit

83 by a protective order but is a renter on the rental agreement, the perpetrator may file a petition
84 with a court of competent jurisdiction within 30 days to:

85 (i) establish whether the perpetrator should be given a key and allowed access to the 86 residential rental unit; or

87 (ii) whether the perpetrator should be relieved of further liability under the rental
88 agreement because of the owner's exclusion of the perpetrator from the residential rental unit.

89 (f) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(e)(ii), a perpetrator may not be relieved of further
90 liability under the rental agreement if the perpetrator is found by the court to have committed 91 the act upon which the landlord's exclusion of the perpetrator is based.

92 (4) A renter who is a victim of domestic violence, as defined in Section 77-36-1, may
93 terminate a rental agreement if the renter:

94 (a) is in compliance with:

95 (i) all provisions of Section 57-22-5; and

96 (ii) all obligations under the rental agreement;

97 (b) provides the owner:

98 (i) written notice of termination; and

99 (ii) a protective order protecting the renter from a domestic violence perpetrator or a
100 copy of a police report documenting that the renter is a victim of domestic violence and did not 101 participate in the violence; and

102 (c) no later than the date that the renter provides a notice of termination under 103 Subsection (4)(b)(i), pays the owner the equivalent of 45 days' rent for the period beginning on 104 the date that the renter provides the notice of termination.

105 (5) An owner may not:

106 (a) impose a restriction on a renter's ability to request assistance from a public safety
107 agency; or

108 (b) penalize or evict a renter because the renter makes reasonable requests for 109 assistance from a public safety agency.

110 Section 2. Section 76-5-106.5 is amended to read:

111 76-5-106.5. Stalking -- Definitions -- Injunction -- Penalties -- Duties of law
112 enforcement officer.

113 (1) As used in this section:

114 (a) "Conviction" means:

115 (i) a verdict or conviction;

116 (ii) a plea of guilty or guilty and mentally ill;

117 (iii) a plea of no contest; or

118 (iv) the acceptance by the court of a plea in abeyance.

119 (b) "Course of conduct" means two or more acts directed at or toward a specific 120 person, including:

121 (i) acts in which the actor follows, monitors, observes, photographs, surveils, threatens,
122 or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property:

123 (A) directly, indirectly, or through any third party; and

124 (B) by any action, method, device, or means; or

125 (ii) when the actor engages in any of the following acts or causes someone else to 126 engage in any of these acts:

127 (A) approaches or confronts a person;

128 (B) appears at the person's workplace or contacts the person's employer or coworkers;

129 (C) appears at a person's residence or contacts a person's neighbors, or enters property
130 owned, leased, or occupied by a person;

131 (D) sends material by any means to the person or for the purpose of obtaining or 132 disseminating information about or communicating with the person to a member of the person's 133 family or household, employer, coworker, friend, or associate of the person;

134 (E) places an object on or delivers an object to property owned, leased, or occupied by 135 a person, or to the person's place of employment with the intent that the object be delivered to 136 the person; or

137 (F) uses a computer, the Internet, text messaging, or any other electronic means to 138 commit an act that is a part of the course of conduct.

139 ~~[(d)]~~ (c) "Emotional distress" means significant mental or psychological suffering,
140 whether or not medical or other professional treatment or counseling is required.

141 ~~[(e)]~~ (d) "Immediate family" means a spouse, parent, child, sibling, or any other person
142 who regularly resides in the household or who regularly resided in the household within the 143 prior six months.

144 (e) "Reasonable person" means a reasonable person in the victim's circumstances.

145 (f) "Stalking" means an offense as described in Subsection (2) or (3).

146 (g) "Text messaging" means a communication in the form of electronic text or one or 147 more electronic images sent by the actor from a telephone or computer to another person's 148 telephone or computer by addressing the communication to the recipient's telephone number.

149 (2) A person is guilty of stalking who intentionally or knowingly engages in a course of 150 conduct directed at a specific person and knows or should know that the course of conduct
151 would cause a reasonable person:

152 (a) to fear for the person's own safety or the safety of a third person; or

153 (b) to suffer other emotional distress.

154 (3) A person is guilty of stalking who intentionally or knowingly violates:

155 (a) a stalking injunction issued pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 3a, Stalking Injunctions;

156 or

157 (b) a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued pursuant to this section.

158 (4) In any prosecution under this section, it is not a defense that the actor:

159 (a) was not given actual notice that the course of conduct was unwanted; or 160 (b) did not intend to cause the victim fear or other emotional distress.

161 (5) An offense of stalking may be prosecuted under this section in any jurisdiction
162 where one or more of the acts that is part of the course of conduct was initiated or caused an 163 effect on the victim.

- 164 (6) Stalking is a class A misdemeanor:
- 165 (a) upon the offender's first violation of Subsection (2); or
- 166 (b) if the offender violated a stalking injunction issued pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 3a,
- 167 Stalking Injunctions.
- 168 (7) Stalking is a third degree felony if the offender:
- 169 (a) has been previously convicted of an offense of stalking;
- 170 (b) has been previously convicted in another jurisdiction of an offense that is
- 171 substantially similar to the offense of stalking;
- 172 (c) has been previously convicted of any felony offense in Utah or of any crime in
- 173 another jurisdiction which if committed in Utah would be a felony, in which the victim of the
- 174 stalking offense or a member of the victim's immediate family was also a victim of the
- 175 previous felony offense;
- 176 (d) violated a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued pursuant to Subsection (9);
- 177 or
- 178 (e) has been or is at the time of the offense a cohabitant, as defined in Section
- 179 78B-7-102, of the victim.
- 180 (8) Stalking is a second degree felony if the offender:
- 181 (a) used a dangerous weapon as defined in Section 76-1-601 or used other means or
- 182 force likely to produce death or serious bodily injury, in the commission of the crime of
- 183 stalking;
- 184 (b) has been previously convicted two or more times of the offense of stalking;
- 185 (c) has been convicted two or more times in another jurisdiction or jurisdictions of
- 186 offenses that are substantially similar to the offense of stalking;
- 187 (d) has been convicted two or more times, in any combination, of offenses under
- 188 Subsection (7)(a), (b), or (c);
- 189 (e) has been previously convicted two or more times of felony offenses in Utah or of
- 190 crimes in another jurisdiction or jurisdictions which, if committed in Utah, would be felonies,

191 in which the victim of the stalking was also a victim of the previous felony offenses; or 192 (f) has been previously convicted of an offense under Subsection (7)(d) or (e).

193 (9) (a) The following serve as an application for a permanent criminal stalking

194 injunction limiting the contact between the defendant and the victim:

195 (i) a conviction for:

196 (A) stalking; or

197 (B) attempt to commit stalking; or

198 (ii) a plea to any of the offenses described in Subsection (9)(a)(i) accepted by the court

199 and held in abeyance for a period of time.

200 (b) A permanent criminal stalking injunction shall be issued by the court at the time of 201 the conviction. The court shall give the defendant notice of the right to request a hearing.

202 (c) If the defendant requests a hearing under Subsection (9)(b), it shall be held at the 203 time of the conviction unless the victim requests otherwise, or for good cause.

204 (d) If the conviction was entered in a justice court, a certified copy of the judgment and

205 conviction or a certified copy of the court's order holding the plea in abeyance shall be filed by

206 the victim in the district court as an application and request for a hearing for a permanent

207 criminal stalking injunction.

208 (10) A permanent criminal stalking injunction shall be issued by the district court

209 granting the following relief where appropriate:

210 (a) an order:

211 (i) restraining the defendant from entering the residence, property, school, or place of

212 employment of the victim; and

213 (ii) requiring the defendant to stay away from the victim, except as provided in

214 Subsection (11), and to stay away from any specified place that is named in the order and is

215 frequented regularly by the victim;

216 (b) an order restraining the defendant from making contact with or regarding the

217 victim, including an order forbidding the defendant from personally or through an agent

218 initiating any communication, except as provided in Subsection (11), likely to cause annoyance
219 or alarm to the victim, including personal, written, or telephone contact with or regarding the 220 victim, with the victim's employers, employees, coworkers, friends, associates, or others with 221 whom communication would be likely to cause annoyance or alarm to the victim; and

222 (c) any other orders the court considers necessary to protect the victim and members of 223 the victim's immediate family or household.

224 (11) If the victim and defendant have minor children together, the court may consider 225 provisions regarding the defendant's exercise of custody and parent-time rights while ensuring 226 the safety of the victim and any minor children. If the court issues a permanent criminal 227 stalking injunction, but declines to address custody and parent-time issues, a copy of the 228 stalking injunction shall be filed in any action in which custody and parent-time issues are 229 being considered and that court may modify the injunction to balance the parties' custody and 230 parent-time rights.

231 (12) Except as provided in Subsection (11), a permanent criminal stalking injunction
232 may be modified, dissolved, or dismissed only upon application of the victim to the court
233 which granted the injunction.

234 (13) Notice of permanent criminal stalking injunctions issued pursuant to this section
235 shall be sent by the court to the statewide warrants network or similar system.

236 (14) A permanent criminal stalking injunction issued pursuant to this section has effect
237 statewide.

238 (15) (a) Violation of an injunction issued pursuant to this section constitutes a third
239 degree felony offense of stalking under Subsection (7).

240 (b) Violations may be enforced in a civil action initiated by the stalking victim, a 241 criminal action initiated by a prosecuting attorney, or both.

242 (16) This section does not preclude the filing of a criminal information for stalking
243 based on the same act which is the basis for the violation of the stalking injunction issued
244 pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 3a, Stalking Injunctions, or a permanent criminal stalking

245 injunction.

246 (17) (a) A law enforcement officer who responds to an allegation of stalking shall use
247 all reasonable means to protect the victim and prevent further violence, including:

248 (i) taking action that, in the officer's discretion, is reasonably necessary to provide for 249 the safety of the victim and any family or household member;

250 (ii) confiscating the weapon or weapons involved in the alleged stalking;

251 (iii) making arrangements for the victim and any child to obtain emergency housing or 252 shelter;

253 (iv) providing protection while the victim removes essential personal effects;

254 (v) arranging, facilitating, or providing for the victim and any child to obtain medical 255 treatment; and

256 (vi) arranging, facilitating, or providing the victim with immediate and adequate notice
257 of the rights of victims and of the remedies and services available to victims of stalking, in 258 accordance with Subsection (17)(b).

259 (b) (i) A law enforcement officer shall give written notice to the victim in simple
260 language, describing the rights and remedies available under this section and Title 77, Chapter
261 3a, Stalking Injunctions.

262 (ii) The written notice shall also include:

263 (A) a statement that the forms needed in order to obtain a stalking injunction are 264 available from the court clerk's office in the judicial district where the victim resides or is
265 temporarily domiciled; and

266 (B) a list of shelters, services, and resources available in the appropriate community,
267 together with telephone numbers, to assist the victim in accessing any needed assistance.

268 (c) If a weapon is confiscated under this Subsection (17), the law enforcement agency
269 shall return the weapon to the individual from whom the weapon is confiscated if a stalking
270 injunction is not issued or once the stalking injunction is terminated.

271 Section 3. Section 76-5-108 is amended to read:

272 76-5-108. Protective orders restraining abuse of another -- Violation.

273 (1) Any person who is the respondent or defendant subject to a protective order, child
274 protective order, ex parte protective order, or ex parte child protective order issued under the 275 following who intentionally or knowingly violates that order after having been properly served 276 or having been present, in person or through court video conferencing, when the order was
277 issued, is guilty of a class A misdemeanor, except as a greater penalty may be provided in Title
278 77, Chapter 36, Cohabitant Abuse Procedures Act:

279 (a) Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 1, Cohabitant Abuse Act;

280 (b) Title 78A, Chapter 6, Juvenile Court Act;

281 (c) Title 77, Chapter 36, Cohabitant Abuse Procedures Act; or

282 (d) a foreign protection order enforceable under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 3, Uniform
283 Interstate Enforcement of Domestic Violence Protection Orders Act~~], who intentionally or~~
284 ~~knowingly violates that order after having been properly served, is guilty of a class A~~
285 ~~misdemeanor, except as a greater penalty may be provided in Title 77, Chapter 36, Cohabitant~~
286 ~~Abuse Procedures Act].~~

287 (2) Violation of an order as described in Subsection (1) is a domestic violence offense
288 under Section 77-36-1 and subject to increased penalties in accordance with Section 77-36-1.1.
289 Section 4. Section 77-3a-101.1 is enacted to read:

290 77-3a-101.1. Mutual civil stalking injunctions.

291 (1) A court may not grant a mutual order or mutual civil stalking injunction to 292 opposing parties, unless each party:

293 (a) files an independent petition against the other for a civil stalking injunction, and 294 both petitions are served;

295 (b) makes a showing at an evidentiary hearing on the civil stalking injunction that 296 stalking has occurred by the other party; and

297 (c) demonstrates the alleged act did not occur in self-defense.

298 (2) If the court issues mutual civil stalking injunctions, the court shall include specific

299 findings of all elements of Subsection (1) in the court order justifying the entry of the court 300 orders.

301 (3) A court may not grant a civil stalking injunction to a civil petitioner who is the 302 respondent or defendant subject to a civil stalking injunction, protective order, child protective 303 order, or ex parte child protective order:

304 (a) issued under:

305 (i) Chapter 3a, Stalking Injunctions;

306 (ii) a foreign protection order enforceable under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 3, Uniform
307 Interstate Enforcement of Domestic Violence Protection Orders Act;

308 (iii) Chapter 36, Cohabitant Abuse Procedures Act;

309 (iv) Title 78A, Chapter 6, Juvenile Court Act; or

310 (v) Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 1, Cohabitant Abuse Act; and

311 (b) unless the court determines that the requirements of Subsection (1) are met, and:

312 (i) the same court issued the order for protection against the respondent; or

313 (ii) if the matter is before a subsequent court, the subsequent court:

314 (A) determines it would be impractical for the original court to consider the matter; or

315 (B) confers with the court that issued the order for protection.

316 Section 5. Section 77-36-1 is amended to read:

317 77-36-1. Definitions.

318 As used in this chapter:

380 (11) "Pretrial protective order" means a written order:
381 (a) specifying and limiting the contact a person who has been charged with a domestic 382 violence offense may have with an alleged victim or other specified individuals; and 383 (b) specifying other conditions of release pursuant to Subsection 77-20-3.5(3),
384 Subsection 77-36-2.6(3), or Section 77-36-2.7, pending trial in the criminal case.

385 (12) "Sentencing protective order" means a written order of the court as part of 386 sentencing in a domestic violence case that limits the contact a person who has been convicted 387 of a domestic violence offense may have with a victim or other specified individuals pursuant 388 to Sections 77-36-5 and 77-36-5.1.

389 (13) "Separated" means a [~~man and a woman~~] couple who have had their marriage
390 solemnized under Section 30-1-4 or 30-1-6 and who are not living in the same residence.

391 (14) "Victim" means a cohabitant who has been subjected to domestic violence.
392 Section 6. Section 77-36-2.1 is amended to read:

393 77-36-2.1. Duties of law enforcement officers -- Notice to victims.

394 (1) A law enforcement officer who responds to an allegation of domestic violence shall 395 use all reasonable means to protect the victim and prevent further violence, including:

396 (a) taking the action that, in the officer's discretion, is reasonably necessary to provide
397 for the safety of the victim and any family or household member;

398 (b) confiscating the weapon or weapons involved in the alleged domestic violence;

399 (c) making arrangements for the victim and any child to obtain emergency housing or
400 shelter;

401 (d) providing protection while the victim removes essential personal effects;

402 (e) arrange, facilitate, or provide for the victim and any child to obtain medical 403 treatment; and

404 (f) arrange, facilitate, or provide the victim with immediate and adequate notice of the 405 rights of victims and of the remedies and services available to victims of domestic violence, in 406 accordance with Subsection (2).

407 (2) (a) A law enforcement officer shall give written notice to the victim in simple
408 language, describing the rights and remedies available under this chapter, Title 78B, Chapter 7,
409 Part 1, Cohabitant Abuse Act, and Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 2, Child Protective Orders.

410 (b) The written notice shall also include:

411 (i) a statement that the forms needed in order to obtain an order for protection are
412 available from the court clerk's office in the judicial district where the victim resides or is 413 temporarily domiciled;

414 (ii) a list of shelters, services, and resources available in the appropriate community,
415 together with telephone numbers, to assist the victim in accessing any needed assistance; and

416 (iii) the information required to be provided to both parties in accordance with 417 Subsections 77-20-3.5(10) and (11).

418 (3) If a weapon is confiscated under this section, the law enforcement agency shall 419 return the weapon to the individual from whom the weapon is confiscated if a domestic 420 violence protective order is not issued or once the domestic violence protective order is 421 terminated.

422 Section 7. Section 78B-7-102 is amended to read:

423 78B-7-102. Definitions.

424 As used in this chapter:

425 (1) "Abuse" means intentionally or knowingly causing or attempting to cause a
426 cohabitant physical harm or intentionally or knowingly placing a cohabitant in reasonable fear
427 of imminent physical harm.

428 (2) "Cohabitant" means an emancipated person pursuant to Section 15-2-1 or a person 429 who is 16 years of age or older who:

430 (a) is or was a spouse of the other party;

431 (b) is or was living as if a spouse of the other party;

432 (c) is related by blood or marriage to the other party as the person's parent, grandparent,
433 sibling, or any other person related to the person by consanguinity or affinity to the second

434 degree;

435 (d) has or had one or more children in common with the other party;

436 (e) is the biological parent of the other party's unborn child; [~~or~~]

437 (f) resides or has resided in the same residence as the other party[-]; or

438 (g) is or was in a consensual sexual relationship with the other party.

439 (3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), "cohabitant" does not include:

440 (a) the relationship of natural parent, adoptive parent, or step-parent to a minor; or

441 (b) the relationship between natural, adoptive, step, or foster siblings who are under 18
442 years of age.

443 (4) "Court clerk" means a district court clerk.

444 (5) "Domestic violence" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-36-1.

445 (6) "Ex parte protective order" means an order issued without notice to the [~~defendant~~]
446 respondent in accordance with this chapter.

447 (7) "Foreign protection order" means the same as that term is defined in Section
448 78B-7-302.

449 (8) "Law enforcement unit" or "law enforcement agency" means any public agency
450 having general police power and charged with making arrests in connection with enforcement
451 of the criminal statutes and ordinances of this state or any political subdivision.

452 (9) "Peace officer" means those persons specified in Title 53, Chapter 13, Peace
453 Officer Classifications.

454 (10) "Protective order" means:

455 (a) an order issued pursuant to this chapter subsequent to a hearing on the petition, of 456 which the petitioner and respondent have been given notice in accordance with this chapter; or 457 (b) an order issued under Subsection 77-36-5.1(6).

458 Section 8. Section 78B-7-105 is amended to read:

459 78B-7-105. Forms for petitions and protective orders -- Assistance.

460 (1) (a) The offices of the court clerk shall provide forms and nonlegal assistance to 461 persons seeking to proceed under this chapter.

462 (b) The Administrative Office of the Courts shall develop and adopt uniform forms for 463 petitions and orders for protection in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. That 464 office shall provide the forms to the clerk of each court authorized to issue protective orders.
465 The forms shall include:

466 (i) a statement notifying the petitioner for an ex parte protective order that knowing
467 falsification of any statement or information provided for the purpose of obtaining a protective 468 order may subject the petitioner to felony prosecution;

469 (ii) a separate portion of the form for those provisions, the violation of which is a
470 criminal offense, and a separate portion for those provisions, the violation of which is a civil 471 violation, as provided in Subsection 78B-7-106\(5\);

472 (iii) language in the criminal provision portion stating violation of any criminal
473 provision is a class A misdemeanor, and language in the civil portion stating violation of or 474 failure to comply with a civil provision is subject to contempt proceedings;

475 (iv) a space for information the petitioner is able to provide to facilitate identification
476 of the respondent, such as social security number, driver license number, date of birth, address,
477 telephone number, and physical description;

478 (v) a space for the petitioner to request a specific period of time for the civil provisions
479 to be in effect, not to exceed 150 days, unless the petitioner provides in writing the reason for 480 the requested extension of the length of time beyond 150 days;

481 (vi) a statement advising the petitioner that when a minor child is included in an ex
482 parte protective order or a protective order, as part of either the criminal or the civil portion of 483 the order, the petitioner may provide a copy of the order to the principal of the school where the 484 child attends; [~~and~~]

485 (vii) a statement advising the petitioner that if the respondent fails to return custody of 486 a minor child to the petitioner as ordered in a protective order, the petitioner may obtain from 487 the court a writ of assistance[-]; and

488 (viii) a space for information the petitioner is able to provide related to a proceeding
489 for an order for protection, civil litigation, a proceeding in juvenile court, and a criminal case
490 involving either party, including:

- 491 (A) the case name;
- 492 (B) the file number;
- 493 (C) the county and state of the proceeding; and
- 494 (D) the judge's name.

495 (2) If the person seeking to proceed under this chapter is not represented by an 496 attorney, it is the responsibility of the court clerk's office to provide:

- 497 (a) the forms adopted pursuant to Subsection (1);
- 498 (b) all other forms required to petition for an order for protection including, but not 499 limited to, forms for service;
- 500 (c) clerical assistance in filling out the forms and filing the petition, in accordance with 501 Subsection (1)(a), except that a court clerk's office may designate any other entity, agency, or 502 person to provide that service, but the court clerk's office is responsible to see that the service is 503 provided;
- 504 (d) information regarding the means available for the service of process;
- 505 (e) a list of legal service organizations that may represent the petitioner in an action
506 brought under this chapter, together with the telephone numbers of those organizations; and
- 507 (f) written information regarding the procedure for transporting a jailed or imprisoned
508 respondent to the protective order hearing, including an explanation of the use of transportation
509 order forms when necessary.

510 (3) ~~[No charges may be imposed by a]~~ A court clerk, constable, or law enforcement 511 agency may not impose a charge for:

- 512 (a) filing a petition under this chapter;
- 513 (b) obtaining an ex parte protective order;
- 514 (c) obtaining copies, either certified or not certified, necessary for service or delivery to

515 law enforcement officials; or

516 (d) fees for service of a petition, ex parte protective order, or protective order.

517 (4) A petition for an order of protection shall be in writing and verified.

518 (5) (a) An order for protection shall be issued in the form adopted by the Administrative 519 Office of the Courts pursuant to Subsection (1).

520 (b) A protective order issued, except orders issued ex parte, shall include the following
521 language:

522 "Respondent was afforded both notice and opportunity to be heard in the hearing that 523 gave rise to this order. Pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act of 1994, P.L. 103-322,
524 108 Stat. 1796, 18 U.S.C.[A.] Sec. 2265, this order is valid in all the United States, the District
525 of Columbia, tribal lands, and United States territories. This order complies with the Uniform
526 Interstate Enforcement of Domestic Violence Protection Orders Act."

527 (c) A protective order issued in accordance with this part, including protective orders
528 issued ex parte and except for a continuous protective order issued under Subsection
529 77-36-5.1(6), shall include the following language:

530 "NOTICE TO PETITIONER: The court may amend or dismiss a protective order after 531 one year if it finds that the basis for the issuance of the protective order no longer exists and the 532 petitioner has repeatedly acted in contravention of the protective order provisions to 533 intentionally or knowingly induce the respondent to violate the protective order, demonstrating
534 to the court that the petitioner no longer has a reasonable fear of the respondent."

535 Section 9. Section 78B-7-106 is amended to read:

536 78B-7-106. Protective orders -- Ex parte protective orders -- Modification of 537 orders -- Service of process -- Duties of the court.

538 (1) If it appears from a petition for an order for protection or a petition to modify an 539 order for protection that domestic violence or abuse has occurred, that there is a substantial 540 likelihood domestic violence or abuse will occur, or that a modification of an order for 541 protection is required, a court may:

542 (a) without notice, immediately issue an order for protection ex parte or modify an
543 order for protection ex parte as it considers necessary to protect the petitioner and all parties
544 named to be protected in the petition; or

545 (b) upon notice, issue an order for protection or modify an order after a hearing,
546 whether or not the respondent appears.

547 (2) A court may grant the following relief without notice in an order for protection or a
548 modification issued ex parte:

549 (a) enjoin the respondent from threatening to commit [~~or~~] domestic violence or abuse,
550 committing domestic violence or abuse [against the petitioner and], or harassing the petitioner
551 or any designated family or household member;

552 (b) prohibit the respondent from [~~harassing,~~] telephoning, contacting, or otherwise
553 communicating with the petitioner or any designated family or household member, directly or 554 indirectly, with the exception of any parent-time provisions in the ex parte order;

555 [~~(c) order that the respondent is excluded from the petitioner's residence and its~~
556 ~~premises, and order the respondent to stay away from the residence, school, or place of~~ 557 ~~employment of the petitioner, and the premises of any of these, or]~~

558 (c) subject to Subsection (2)(e), prohibit the respondent from being within a specified
559 distance of the petitioner;

560 (d) subject to Subsection (2)(e), order that the respondent is excluded from and is to
561 stay away from the following places and their premises:

562 (i) the petitioner's residence or any designated family or household member's residence;

563 (ii) the petitioner's school or any designated family or household member's school;

564 (iii) the petitioner's or any designated family or household member's place of 565 employment;

566 (iv) the petitioner's place of worship or any designated family or household member's 567 place of worship; or

568 (v) any specified place frequented by the petitioner [and] or any designated family or

569 household member;

570 (e) if the petitioner or designated family or household member attends the same school
571 as the respondent, is employed at the same place of employment as the respondent, or attends 572 the same place of worship, the court:

573 (i) may not enter an order under Subsection (2)(c) or (d) that excludes the respondent
574 from the respondent's school, place of employment, or place of worship; and

575 (ii) may enter an order governing the respondent's conduct at the respondent's school,
576 place of employment, or place of worship;

577 ~~[(d)]~~ (f) upon finding that the respondent's use or possession of a weapon may pose a
578 serious threat of harm to the petitioner, prohibit the respondent from purchasing, using, or 579 possessing a firearm or other weapon specified by the court;

580 ~~[(e)]~~ (g) order possession and use of an automobile and other essential personal effects,
581 and direct the appropriate law enforcement officer to accompany the petitioner to the residence
582 of the parties to ensure that the petitioner is safely restored to possession of the residence,
583 automobile, and other essential personal effects, or to supervise the petitioner's or respondent's
584 removal of personal belongings;

585 ~~[(f)]~~ (h) grant to the petitioner or someone other than the respondent temporary custody
586 of ~~[any minor children]~~ a minor child of the parties;

587 ~~[(g)]~~ (i) order the appointment of an attorney guardian ad litem under Sections
588 78A-2-703 and 78A-6-902;

589 ~~[(h)]~~ (j) order any further relief that the court considers necessary to provide for the 590 safety and welfare of the petitioner and any designated family or household member; and

591 ~~[(i)]~~ (k) if the petition requests child support or spousal support, at the hearing on the 592 petition order both parties to provide verification of current income, including year-to-date pay
593 stubs or employer statements of year-to-date or other period of earnings, as specified by the 594 court, and complete copies of tax returns from at least the most recent year.

595 (3) A court may grant the following relief in an order for protection or a modification

596 of an order after notice and hearing, whether or not the respondent appears:

597 (a) grant the relief described in Subsection (2); and

598 (b) specify arrangements for parent-time of any minor child by the respondent and 599 require supervision of that parent-time by a third party or deny parent-time if necessary to 600 protect the safety of the petitioner or child.

601 (4) Following the protective order hearing, the court shall:

602 (a) as soon as possible, deliver the order to the county sheriff for service of process;

603 (b) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order for protection is understood by the 604 petitioner, and the respondent, if present;

605 (c) transmit electronically, by the end of the next business day after the order is issued,
606 a copy of the order for protection to the local law enforcement agency or agencies designated 607 by the petitioner; and

608 (d) transmit a copy of the order to the statewide domestic violence network described 609 in Section 78B-7-113.

610 (5) (a) Each protective order shall include two separate portions, one for provisions, the 611 violation of which are criminal offenses, and one for provisions, the violation of which are civil 612 violations, as follows:

613 (i) criminal offenses are those under Subsections (2)(a) through (e), and under 614 Subsection (3)(a) as it refers to Subsections (2)(a) through (e); and

615 (ii) civil offenses are those under Subsections (2)(f), (h), and (i), and Subsection (3)(a)
616 as it refers to Subsections (2)(f), (h), and (i).

617 (b) The criminal provision portion shall include a statement that violation of any 618 criminal provision is a class A misdemeanor.

619 (c) The civil provision portion shall include a notice that violation of or failure to 620 comply with a civil provision is subject to contempt proceedings.

621 (6) The protective order shall include:

622 (a) a designation of a specific date, determined by the court, when the civil portion of

623 the protective order either expires or is scheduled for review by the court, which date may not 624 exceed 150 days after the date the order is issued, unless the court indicates on the record the 625 reason for setting a date beyond 150 days;

626 (b) information the petitioner is able to provide to facilitate identification of the 627 respondent, such as social security number, driver license number, date of birth, address,
628 telephone number, and physical description; and

629 (c) a statement advising the petitioner that:

630 (i) after two years from the date of issuance of the protective order, a hearing may be
631 held to dismiss the criminal portion of the protective order;

632 (ii) the petitioner should, within the 30 days prior to the end of the two-year period,
633 advise the court of the petitioner's current address for notice of any hearing; and

634 (iii) the address provided by the petitioner will not be made available to the respondent.

635 (7) Child support and spouse support orders issued as part of a protective order are 636 subject to mandatory income withholding under Title 62A, Chapter 11, Part 4, Income
637 Withholding in IV-D Cases, and Title 62A, Chapter 11, Part 5, Income Withholding in Non 638 IV-D Cases, except when the protective order is issued ex parte.

639 (8) (a) The county sheriff that receives the order from the court, pursuant to Subsection
640 (5)(a), shall provide expedited service for orders for protection issued in accordance with this 641 chapter, and shall transmit verification of service of process, when the order has been served, to
642 the statewide domestic violence network described in Section 78B-7-113.

643 (b) This section does not prohibit any law enforcement agency from providing service
644 of process if that law enforcement agency:

645 (i) has contact with the respondent and service by that law enforcement agency is 646 possible; or

647 (ii) determines that under the circumstances, providing service of process on the 648 respondent is in the best interests of the petitioner.

649 (9) (a) When an order is served on a respondent in a jail or other holding facility, the

650 law enforcement agency managing the facility shall make a reasonable effort to provide notice
651 to the petitioner at the time the respondent is released from incarceration.

652 (b) Notification of the petitioner shall consist of a good faith reasonable effort to 653 provide notification, including mailing a copy of the notification to the last-known address of 654 the victim.

655 (10) A court may modify or vacate an order of protection or any provisions in the order
656 after notice and hearing, except that the criminal provisions of a protective order may not be 657 vacated within two years of issuance unless the petitioner:

658 (a) is personally served with notice of the hearing as provided in Rules 4 and 5, Utah
659 Rules of Civil Procedure, and the petitioner personally appears, in person or through court
660 video conferencing, before the court and gives specific consent to the vacation of the criminal 661 provisions of the protective order; or

662 (b) submits a verified affidavit, stating agreement to the vacation of the criminal 663 provisions of the protective order.

664 (11) A protective order may be modified without a showing of substantial and material
665 change in circumstances.

666 (12) Insofar as the provisions of this chapter are more specific than the Utah Rules of 667 Civil Procedure, regarding protective orders, the provisions of this chapter govern.

668 Section 10. Section 78B-7-107 is amended to read:

669 78B-7-107. Hearings on ex parte orders.

670 (1) (a) When a court issues an ex parte protective order the court shall set a date for a
671 hearing on the petition to be held within 20 days after the ex parte order is issued.

672 (b) If at that hearing the court does not issue a protective order, the ex parte protective
673 order shall expire, unless it is otherwise extended by the court. Extensions beyond the 20-day
674 period may not be granted unless:

675 (i) the petitioner is unable to be present at the hearing;

676 (ii) the respondent has not been served;

- 677 (iii) the respondent has had the opportunity to present a defense at the hearing;
- 678 (iv) the respondent requests that the ex parte order be extended; or
- 679 (v) exigent circumstances exist.

680 (c) Under no circumstances may an ex parte order be extended beyond 180 days from 681 the date of initial issuance.

682 (d) If at that hearing the court issues a protective order, the ex parte protective order
683 remains in effect until service of process of the protective order is completed.

684 (e) A protective order issued after notice and a hearing is effective until further order of 685 the court.

686 (f) If the hearing on the petition is heard by a commissioner, either the petitioner or 687 respondent may file an objection within 10 days of the entry of the recommended order and the 688 assigned judge shall hold a hearing within 20 days of the filing of the objection.

689 (2) Upon a hearing under this section, the court may grant any of the relief described in 690 Section 78B-7-106.

691 (3) When a court denies a petition for an ex parte protective order or a petition to 692 modify an order for protection ex parte, upon the request of the petitioner, the court shall set 693 the matter for hearing and notify the petitioner and serve the respondent.

694 (4) A respondent who has been served with an ex parte protective order may seek to 695 vacate the ex parte protective order prior to the hearing scheduled pursuant to Subsection (1)(a)
696 by filing a verified motion to vacate. The respondent's verified motion to vacate and a notice
697 of hearing on that motion shall be personally served on the petitioner at least two days prior to 698 the hearing on the motion to vacate.

699 Section 11. Section 78B-7-108 is amended to read:

700 78B-7-108. Mutual protective orders.

701 (1) A court may not grant a mutual order or mutual orders for protection to opposing
702 parties, unless each party:

703 (a) [~~has filed~~] files an independent petition against the other for a protective order, and

704 both petitions [~~have been~~] are served;

705 (b) makes a showing at a due process protective order hearing of abuse or domestic
706 violence committed by the other party; and

707 (c) demonstrates the abuse or domestic violence did not occur in self-defense.

708 (2) If the court issues mutual protective orders, [~~the circumstances justifying those~~ 709 ~~orders shall be documented in the case file.~~] the court shall include specific findings of all
710 elements of Subsection (1) in the court order justifying the entry of the court order.

711 (3) A court may not grant an order for protection to a civil petitioner who is the
712 respondent or defendant subject to a protective order, child protective order, or ex parte child
713 protective order:

714 (a) issued under:

715 (i) a foreign protection order enforceable under Chapter 7, Part 3, Uniform Interstate 716 Enforcement of Domestic Violence Protection Orders Act;

717 (ii) Title 77, Chapter 36, Cohabitant Abuse Procedures Act;

718 (iii) Title 78A, Chapter 6, Juvenile Court Act; or

719 (iv) Chapter 7, Part 1, Cohabitant Abuse Act; and

720 (b) unless the court determines that the requirements of Subsection (1) are met, and:

721 (i) the same court issued the order for protection against the respondent; or

722 (ii) if the matter is before a subsequent court, the subsequent court:

723 (A) determines it would be impractical for the original court to consider the matter; or

724 (B) confers with the court that issued the order for protection.

725 Section 12. Section 78B-7-109 is amended to read:

726 78B-7-109. Continuing duty to inform court of other proceedings -- Effect of 727 other proceedings.

728 (1) [~~At any hearing in a proceeding to obtain an order for protection, each~~] Each party
729 has a continuing duty to inform the court of each proceeding for an order for protection, any 730 civil litigation, each proceeding in juvenile court, and each criminal case involving either party,

731 including the case name, the file number, and the county and state of the proceeding, if that 732 information is known by the party.

733 (2) (a) An order for protection issued pursuant to this chapter is in addition to and not 734 in lieu of any other available civil or criminal proceeding.

735 (b) A petitioner is not barred from seeking a protective order because of other pending
736 proceedings.

737 (c) A court may not delay granting relief under this chapter because of the existence of 738 a pending civil action between the parties.

739 (3) A petitioner may omit [~~his or her~~] the petitioner's address from all documents filed
740 with the court under this chapter, but shall separately provide the court with a mailing address
741 that is not to be made part of the public record, but that may be provided to a peace officer or 742 entity for service of process.

743 Section 13. Section 78B-7-115 is amended to read:

744 78B-7-115. Dismissal of protective order -- Expiration.

745 (1) Except as provided in Subsections (6) and (8), a protective order that has been in 746 effect for at least two years may be dismissed if the court determines that the petitioner no
747 longer has a reasonable fear of future harm or abuse. In determining whether the petitioner no
748 longer has a reasonable fear of future harm or abuse, the court shall consider the following
749 factors:

750 (a) whether the respondent has complied with treatment recommendations related to 751 domestic violence, entered at the time the protective order was entered;

752 (b) whether the protective order was violated during the time it was in force;

753 (c) claims of harassment, abuse, or violence by either party during the time the 754 protective order was in force;

755 (d) counseling or therapy undertaken by either party;

756 (e) impact on the well-being of any minor children of the parties, if relevant; and

757 (f) any other factors the court considers relevant to the case before it.

758 (2) Except as provided in Subsections (6) and (8), the court may amend or dismiss a
759 protective order issued in accordance with this part that has been in effect for at least one year 760 if it finds that:

- 761 (a) the basis for the issuance of the protective order no longer exists;
- 762 (b) the petitioner has repeatedly acted in contravention of the protective order 763 provisions to intentionally or knowingly induce the respondent to violate the protective order;
- 764 (c) the petitioner's actions demonstrate that the petitioner no longer has a reasonable 765 fear of the respondent; and
- 766 (d) the respondent has not been convicted of a protective order violation or any crime
767 of violence subsequent to the issuance of the protective order, and there are no unresolved
768 charges involving violent conduct still on file with the court.

769 (3) The court shall enter sanctions against either party if the court determines that 770 either party acted:

- 771 (a) in bad faith; or
- 772 (b) with intent to harass or intimidate either party.

773 (4) Notice of a motion to dismiss a protective order shall be made by personal service
774 on the petitioner in a protective order action as provided in Rules 4 and 5, Utah Rules of Civil 775 Procedure.

776 (5) Except as provided in Subsection (8), if a divorce proceeding is pending between 777 parties to a protective order action, the protective order shall be dismissed when the court
778 issues a decree of divorce for the parties if:

779 ~~[(a) the petitioner in the protective order action is present or has been given notice in 780 both the divorce and protective order action of the hearing; and]~~

781 ~~[(b) the court specifically finds that the order need not continue, and, as provided in 782 Subsection (1), the petitioner no longer has a reasonable fear of future harm or abuse.]~~

783 (a) the respondent files a motion to dismiss a protective order in both the divorce
784 action and the protective order action and personally serves the petitioner; and

785 (b) (i) the parties stipulate in writing or on the record to dismiss the protective order; or 786 (ii) based on evidence at the divorce trial, the court determines that the petitioner no
787 longer has a reasonable fear of future harm or abuse after considering the factors listed in 788 Subsections (1)(a) through (f).

789 (6) (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (1) or (2) and subject to Subsection (8), a
790 protective order that has been entered under this chapter concerning a petitioner and a
791 respondent who are divorced shall automatically expire, subject to [~~Subsections (6)(b) and (c)~~]
792 Subsection (6)(b), 10 years from the day on which [~~one of the following occurs: (i) the decree~~
793 ~~of divorce between the petitioner and respondent became absolute; or (ii)] the protective order~~
794 [~~was] is entered.~~

795 (b) The protective order shall automatically expire, as described in Subsection (6)(a),
796 unless[~~:(i)~~] the petitioner files a motion before expiration of the protective order and 797 demonstrates that:

798 (i) the petitioner has a reasonable fear of future harm or abuse, as described in 799 Subsection (1); or

800 (ii) the respondent has been convicted of a protective order violation or any crime of 801 domestic violence subsequent to the issuance of the protective order.

802 [~~(c) The 10 years described in Subsection (6)(a) is tolled for any period of time that the~~ 803 ~~respondent is incarcerated.]~~

804 (c) If the court grants the motion under Subsection (6)(b), the court shall set a new date
805 on which the protective order expires. The protective order will expire unless the petitioner
806 files a motion described in Subsection (6)(b) to extend the protective order.

807 (7) When the court dismisses a protective order, the court shall immediately:

808 (a) issue an order of dismissal to be filed in the protective order action; and

809 (b) transmit a copy of the order of dismissal to the statewide domestic violence

810 network as described in Section 78B-7-113.

811 (8) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, a continuous protective order

812 may not be modified or dismissed except as provided in Subsection 77-36-5.1\(6\).

813 Section 14. Section 78B-7-115.5 is enacted to read:

814 78B-7-115.5. Expiration of protective order.

815 (1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, a civil protective order issued under 816 this part automatically expires 10 years from the day on which the protective order is entered.

817 (2) The protective order automatically expires as described in Subsection (1), unless 818 the petitioner files a motion before expiration of the protective order and demonstrates that:

819 (a) the petitioner has a current reasonable fear of future harm or abuse, as described in 820 Subsection 78B-7-115\(1\); or

821 (b) the respondent has been convicted of a protective order violation or any crime of 822 domestic violence subsequent to the issuance of the protective order.

823 (3) If the court grants the motion under Subsection (2), the court shall set a new date on 824 which the protective order expires. The protective order will expire unless the petitioner files a
825 motion described in Subsection (2) to extend the protective order.

826 Section 15. Section 78B-7-408 is enacted to read:

827 78B-7-408. Duties of law enforcement officers -- Notice to victims.

828 (1) A law enforcement officer who responds to an allegation of dating violence shall
829 use all reasonable means to protect the victim and prevent further violence, including:

830 (a) taking action that, in the officer's discretion, is reasonably necessary to provide for
831 the safety of the victim and any family or household member;

832 (b) confiscating the weapon or weapons involved in the alleged dating violence;

833 (c) making arrangements for the victim and any child to obtain emergency housing or
834 shelter;

835 (d) providing protection while the victim removes essential personal effects;

836 (e) arranging, facilitating, or providing for the victim and any child to obtain medical 837 treatment; and

838 (f) arranging, facilitating, or providing the victim with immediate and adequate notice

839 of the rights of victims and of the remedies and services available to victims of dating violence,
840 in accordance with Subsection (2).

841 (2) (a) A law enforcement officer shall give written notice to the victim in simple
842 language, describing the rights and remedies available under this chapter.

843 (b) The written notice shall also include:

844 (i) a statement that the forms needed in order to obtain an order for protection are
845 available from the court clerk's office in the judicial district where the victim resides or is
846 temporarily domiciled; and

847 (ii) a list of shelters, services, and resources available in the appropriate community,
848 together with telephone numbers, to assist the victim in accessing any needed assistance.

849 (3) If a weapon is confiscated under this section, the law enforcement agency shall 850 return the weapon to the individual from whom the weapon is confiscated if a dating protective 851 order is not issued or once the dating protective order is terminated.

852 Section 16. Section 78B-7-409 is enacted to read:

853 78B-7-409. Mutual protective orders.

854 (1) A court may not grant a mutual order or mutual orders for protection to opposing
855 parties, unless each party:

856 (a) files an independent petition against the other for a protective order, and both 857 petitions are served;

858 (b) makes a showing at a due process protective order hearing of abuse or dating
859 violence committed by the other party; and

860 (c) demonstrates the abuse or dating violence did not occur in self-defense.

861 (2) If the court issues mutual protective orders, the court shall include specific findings
862 of all elements of Subsection (1) in the court order justifying the entry of the court order.

863 (3) A court may not grant an order for protection to a civil petitioner who is the
864 respondent or defendant subject to a protective order, child protective order, or ex parte child
865 protective order:

- 866 (a) issued under:
- 867 (i) this chapter;
- 868 (ii) Title 77, Chapter 36, Cohabitant Abuse Procedures Act;
- 869 (iii) Title 78A, Chapter 6, Juvenile Court Act;
- 870 (iv) Chapter 7, Part 1, Cohabitant Abuse Act; or
- 871 (v) a foreign protection order enforceable under Chapter 7, Part 3, Uniform Interstate
- 872 Enforcement of Domestic Violence Protection Orders Act; and
- 873 (b) unless the court determines that the requirements of Subsection (1) are met, and:
- 874 (i) the same court issued the order for protection against the respondent; or
- 875 (ii) if the matter is before a subsequent court, the subsequent court:
- 876 (A) determines it would be impractical for the original court to consider the matter; or
- 877 (B) confers with the court that issued the order for protection.
