34 ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

35 53-18-101. Title.

36 This chapter is known as "Protection of Personal Information of Law Enforcement
37 Officers."

38 Section 2. Section 53-18-102 is enacted to read:

39 53-18-102. Definitions.

40 As used in this chapter:

41 (1) "Access software provider" means a provider of software, including client or server
42 software, or enabling tools that do any one or more of the following:

43 (a) filter, screen, allow, or disallow content;

44 (b) pick, choose, analyze, or digest content; or

45 (c) transmit, receive, display, forward, cache, search, subset, organize, reorganize, or 46 translate content.

47 (2) "Immediate family member" means a law enforcement officer's spouse, child or 48 spouse of a child, sibling or spouse of a sibling, or parent.

49 (3) "Interactive computer service" means the same as that term is defined in Subsection
50 47 U.S.C. 230(f).

51 (4) "Law enforcement officer" or "officer":

52 (a) means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-13-103;

53 (b) includes "correctional officers" as defined in Section 53-13-104; and

54 (c) refers only to officers who are currently employed by, retired from, or were killed in 55 the line of duty while in the employ of a state or local governmental law enforcement agency.

56 (5) "Personal information" means a law enforcement officer's or law enforcement

57 officer's immediate family member's address, telephone number, personal mobile telephone 58 number, pager number, personal email address, personal photograph, directions to locate the 59 law enforcement officer's home, or photographs of the law enforcement officer's or the officer's
60 immediate family member's home or vehicle.

61 (6) "Publicly post" or "publicly display" means to intentionally communicate or 62 otherwise make available to the general public.

63 Section 3. Section 53-18-103 is enacted to read:

64 53-18-103. Internet posting of personal information of law enforcement officers --
65 Prohibitions.

66 (1) A state or local governmental agency may not post the personal information of any
67 law enforcement officer employed by the state or any political subdivision on the Internet
68 unless the agency has obtained written permission from the officer and has the written 69 permission in the agency's possession.

70 (2) An individual may not knowingly post on the Internet the personal information of 71 any law enforcement officer or of the officer's immediate family members knowing the person
72 is a law enforcement officer or that the person is the immediate family member of a law
73 enforcement officer.

74 (a) A violation of this Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

75 (b) A violation of this Subsection (2) that results in bodily injury to the officer, or a
76 member of the officer's immediate family, is a class A misdemeanor.

77 (c) Each act against a separate individual in violation of this Subsection (2) is a
78 separate offense. The defendant may also be charged separately with the commission of any 79 other criminal conduct related to the commission of an offense under this Subsection (2).

80 (3) (a) A business or association may not publicly post or publicly display on the 81 Internet the personal information of any law enforcement officer if that officer has, either
82 directly or through an agent designated under Subsection (3)(c), provided to that business or 83 association a written demand to not disclose the officer's personal information.

84 (b) A written demand made under this Subsection (3) by a law enforcement officer is 85 effective for the four years beginning on the day the demand is delivered, regardless of whether 86 or not the law enforcement officer's employment as an officer has terminated during the four 87 years.

88 (c) A law enforcement officer may designate in writing the officer's employer or a
89 representative of any voluntary professional association of law enforcement officers to act on 90 behalf of the officer and as the officer's agent to make a written demand pursuant to this 91 chapter.

92 (d) (i) A business or association that receives a written demand from a law enforcement
93 officer under Subsection (3)(a) shall remove the officer's personal information from public
94 display on the Internet, including the removal of information provided to cellular telephone
95 applications, within 24 hours of the delivery of the written demand, and shall ensure that the 96 information is not posted again on the same Internet website or any other Internet website the 97 recipient of the written demand maintains or exercises control over.

98 (ii) After receiving the law enforcement officer's written demand, the person, business,
99 or association may not publicly post or publicly display on the Internet, the personal 100 information of the law enforcement officer.

101 (iii) This Subsection (3)(d) does not prohibit a telephone corporation, as defined in 102 Section 54-2-1, or its affiliate or other voice service provider, including providers of 103 interconnected voice over Internet protocol service as defined in 47 C.F.R. 9.3, from 104 transferring the law enforcement officer's personal information to any person, business, or 105 association, if the transfer is authorized by federal or state law, regulation, order, terms of 106 service, or tariff, or is necessary in the event of an emergency, or to collect a debt owed by the 107 officer to the telephone corporation or its affiliate.

108 (iv) This Subsection (3)(d) does not apply to a telephone corporation or other voice
109 service provider, including providers of interconnected voice over Internet protocol service,
110 with respect to directories or directories listings to the extent the entity offers a nonpublished
111 listing option.

112 (4) (a) A law enforcement officer whose personal information is made public as a
113 result of a violation of Subsection (3) may bring an action seeking injunctive or declarative
114 relief in any court of competent jurisdiction.

115 (b) If a court finds that a violation has occurred, it may grant injunctive or declarative
116 relief and shall award the law enforcement officer court costs and reasonable attorney fees.

117 (c) If the defendant fails to comply with an order of the court issued under this 118 Subsection (4), the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 for the 119 defendant's failure to comply with the court's order.

120 (5) (a) A person, business, or association may not solicit, sell, or trade on the Internet
121 the personal information of a law enforcement officer, if the dissemination of the personal 122 information poses an imminent and serious threat to the law enforcement officer's safety or the 123 safety of the law enforcement officer's immediate family and the person making the 124 information available on the Internet knows or reasonably should know of the imminent and 125 serious threat.

126 (b) A law enforcement officer whose personal information is knowingly publicly
127 posted or publicly displayed on the Internet may bring an action in any court of competent
128 jurisdiction. If a jury or court finds that a defendant has committed a violation of Subsection 129 (5)(a), the jury or court shall award damages to the officer in the amount of triple the cost of 130 actual damages or $4,000, whichever is greater.

131 (6) An interactive computer service or access software is not liable under Subsections
132 (3)(d)(i) and (5) for information or content provided by another information content provider of 133 the service or software.

134 (7) Unless a law enforcement officer requests that certain information be removed or 135 protected from disclosure in accordance with Section 63G-2-302, a county recorder who makes 136 information available for public inspection in accordance with Section 17-21-19 is not in 137 violation of this chapter.

138 Section 4. Section 53-18-104 is enacted to read:

139 53-18-104. Protection of constitutional rights.

140 This chapter does not affect, limit, or apply to, any conduct or activities that are 141 protected by the constitution or laws of the state or by the constitution or laws of the United 142 States.
