96 17B-2a-813. Rights, benefits, and protective conditions for employees of a public
97 transit district -- Strike prohibited -- Employees of an acquired transit system.

98 (1) The rights, benefits, and other employee protective conditions and remedies of 99 Section 13(c) of the Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964, 49 U.S.C. Sec. 5333(b), as 100 determined by the Secretary of Labor, apply to a public transit district's establishment and 101 operation of a public transit service or system.

102 (2) (a) Employees of a public transit system established and operated by a public transit 103 district have the right to:

- 104 (i) self-organization;
- 105 (ii) form, join, or assist labor organizations; ~~[and]~~
- 106 (iii) bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing~~[-];~~ or
- 107 (iv) refrain from any or all of the above.

108 (b) Employees of a public transit district and labor organizations may not join in a
109 strike against the public transit system operated by the public transit district.

110 (c) Each public transit district shall:

111 (i) recognize and bargain exclusively with any labor organization ~~[representing]~~
112 authorized to represent a majority of the district's employees in an appropriate unit with respect
113 to wages, salaries, hours, working conditions, and welfare, pension, and retirement provisions;
114 and

115 (ii) upon reaching agreement with the labor organization as described in Subsection
116 (2)(c)(i), enter into and execute a written contract incorporating the agreement.

117 (3) For recognition and bargaining authority as described in Subsection (2)(c), a public 118 transit district shall recognize a labor organization acting on behalf of a bargaining unit if the 119 labor organization:

120 (a) presents a petition to the public transit district in which 30% of employees in the

121 bargaining unit allege their desire to be represented by a labor organization; and 122 (b) obtains a majority vote in favor of having the labor organization act as the 123 bargaining unit representative in a secret ballot election among the employees in the bargaining
124 unit.

125 (4) Subsection (3) shall not apply to labor organizations with collective bargaining
126 agreements in effect before January 1, 2017.

127 (5) (a) The election described in Subsection (3)(b) shall be overseen by:

128 (i) a third party selected by agreement between the labor organization and the public
129 transit district; or

130 (ii) in the absence of an agreement, by the Utah Labor Commission.

131 (b) Elections held pursuant to Subsection (3)(b) may be conducted at the intervals
132 prescribed in 29 U.S.C. Sec. 159(c)(3).

133 ~~[(3)]~~ (6) If a public transit district acquires an existing public transit system:

134 (a) all employees of the acquired system who are necessary for the operation of the 135 acquired system, except executive and administrative officers and employees, shall be:

136 (i) transferred to and appointed employees of the acquiring public transit district; and

137 (ii) given sick leave, seniority, vacation, and pension or retirement credits in 138 accordance with the acquired system's records;

139 (b) members and beneficiaries of a pension or retirement plan or other program of 140 benefits that the acquired system has established shall continue to have rights, privileges,
141 benefits, obligations, and status with respect to that established plan or program; and

142 (c) the public transit district may establish, amend, or modify, by agreement with 143 employees or their authorized representatives, the terms, conditions, and provisions of a
144 pension or retirement plan or of an amendment or modification of a pension or retirement plan.

145 ~~[(4)]~~ (7) A pension administrator for a retirement plan sponsored by a public transit
146 district or a person designated by the administrator shall maintain retirement records in 147 accordance with Subsection 49-11-618(2).
