H.R. 6

House resolution amending the Rules and Orders of the House of Representatives related to members' disclosure form

Offered by: Representative Deen of Westminster

Whereas, pursuant to Rule 14a, members of the House of Representatives are required to submit a disclosure form that lists information including any boards, commissions, or other entities on which the member serves and the member's employer, and

Whereas, Rule 14a states that these forms should be publicly available, and

Whereas, the forms are currently kept only in paper form in the Clerk's office, are not available online, and, as a result, are not easily accessible to the public or to other members, now therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives:

That Rule 14a of the Rules and Orders of the House of Representatives be amended to read:

14a. On or before the 10th day of the beginning of the biennium, each member shall submit to the Clerk a disclosure form prepared by the Clerk. The form shall be signed by the member, be publicly available on the official website of the Clerk, and may be updated. The form shall set forth, to the best of the member's ability, the following information applicable as of the date of submission:

(a) any boards, commissions, or other entities on which the member serves; a description of that position; and, except in the case of legislative appointments, whether the member receives any form of remuneration for that position; and

(b) the member's employer.
