EFFECT: Makes the following changes to the striking amendment:
(1) Directs the principal, other building administrator, or designee of the provider of public educational services to notify the parent or guardian of a student who was isolated or restrained, or the parents or legal guardians of all students impacted by a room clear, about the incident, within 24 hours of the incident, and encourages notification on the same calendar day (rather than directing notification to the parent or guardian of a student who was isolated or restrained within 24 hours of the incident).

(2) Requires that all students impacted by a room clear be provided with the opportunity to meet with a counselor, nurse, psychologist, or social worker to reflect, process, and recover as soon as practicable following their return from a room clear (as is required for students released from isolation or restraint).

(3) Adds that a team of staff must review an incident of a room clear, as soon as practicable following the return of students from a room clear to identify additional training, coaching, or assistance that may support staff who used, or directed the use of, a room clear to use less restrictive interventions in similar situations in the future (as is required for incidents of isolation and restraint).
