Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

No fiscal impact. This legislation will not measurably increase the appeal workload for the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH).

Although this bill affects 350 limited authority officers, the Criminal Justice Training Commission assumes the appeal rate is very small. Costs to OAH, if any, are nominal.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

None.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Pursuant to RCW 67.70.330, Washington's Lottery is a limited authority law enforcement agency as defined in RCW 10.93.020. However, section 1 of SHB 1132 more narrowly defines "limited authority Washington peace officer" as one "who as a normal part of their duties has powers of arrest and carries a firearm." Lottery peace officers are not authorized by the agency to arrest suspects or carry weapons. Therefore, they do not fall under the requirements of this bill to complete basic law enforcement training.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

There is no change to this fiscal note from 1132 HB.

Section 1 of the bill amends the definition of “Law enforcement personnel” to include a limited authority Washington peace officer as defined in RCW 10.93.020 who as a normal part of their duties have powers of arrest and carry a firearm and includes limited authority Washington peace officers in the definition of peace officers.

Section 2 of the bill requires all limited authority Washington peace officers to engage in basic law enforcement training. Section 2 also requires limited law enforcement agencies to reimburse the commission for the full cost of training their personnel.

Section 3 of the bill requires limited authority Washington peace officers offered a conditional offer of employment as a peace officer after July 1, 2023 whose certification has lapsed as a result of a break of more than 24 consecutive months in the officer's service for a reason other than being recalled to military service, to submit to a background investigation to determine the applicant's suitability for employment.

Section 4 of the bill excludes from training requirements limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies whose authority does not include the investigation of sexual assaults.

Section 5 of the bill excludes from participation requirements limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies whose authority does not include the investigation of sexual assaults.

Section 6 of the bill exempts limited authority Washington peace officers from completing the basic law enforcement academy or an equivalent basic academy upon transferring to a general authority Washington law enforcement agency or limited authority Washington law enforcement agency as long as they have received a certificate of successful completion from the basic law enforcement academy or the basic law enforcement equivalency academy and thereafter engaged in regular and commissioned law enforcement employment with an agency listed in subsection (1) of this section without a break or interruption in excess of 24 months' duration and have documented participation in annual law enforcement training.

The Gambling Commission is a limited law enforcement agency. Gambling Commission's law enforcement staff already attend the training required by this bill, so there is no fiscal impact.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 1(9) and (10) amend RCW 43.101.010 so that the definitions of “law enforcement personnel” and “peace officer” include limited authority WA peace officers who, as a normal part of their duties, have powers of arrest and carry a firearm.

Section 2(2) requires limited authority WA peace officers who are employed on or after July 1, 2023, to commence basic training during the first 12 months of employment unless the basic training requirement is otherwise waived or extended by the commission. Successful completion of basic training is requisite to the continuation of employment of such personnel initially employed on or after July 1, 2023. Section 2(3) requires limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies to reimburse the Criminal Justice Training Commission (CJTC) for the full cost of training their personnel.

Section 3(2)(a) requires limited authority Washington peace officers, offered employment after July 1, 2023, to submit to a background investigation.

The Office of Insurance Commissioner’s criminal investigations unit (CIU) detectives are subject to the updated training requirements and standards in SHB 1132. However, the CIU recruitment protocol already requires detective applicants to have basic law enforcement academy training (or basic law enforcement equivalency academy training), and background investigations. Additionally, detective applicants for the CIU are not allowed to have more than a 24-month lapse in their certification with the CJTC. Therefore, this bill has no fiscal impact on the Office of Insurance Commissioner.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 1(9): amends the definition of “law enforcement personnel” to state that limited authority Washington peace officers as defined in RCW 10.93.020, who have powers of arrest and carry a firearm as part of their normal duty, are peace officers for purposes of this chapter.

Section 2:

(2)(a) All law enforcement personnel who are limited authority Washington peace officers and whose employment commences on or after July 1, 2023, shall commence basic training during the first 12 months of employment unless the basic training requirement is otherwise waived or extended by the commission. Successful completion of basic training is requisite to the continuation of employment of such personnel initially employed on or after July 1, 2023.

(b)(i) The commission shall review the training files of all law enforcement personnel who are limited authority Washington peace officers, whose employment commenced prior to July 1, 2023, and who have not successfully completed training that complies with standards adopted by the commission, to determine what, if any, supplemental training is required to appropriately carry out the officers' duties and responsibilities.

(ii) Nothing in this section may be interpreted to require law enforcement personnel who are limited authority Washington peace officers, whose employment commenced prior to July 1, 2023, to complete the basic law enforcement training academy as a condition of continuing employment as a limited authority Washington peace officer.

(iii) Law enforcement personnel who are limited authority Washington peace officers are not required to complete the basic law enforcement academy or an equivalent basic academy upon transferring to a general authority Washington law enforcement agency or limited authority Washington law enforcement agency, as defined in RCW 10.93.020, if they have:

(A) Been employed as a special agent with the Washington state gambling commission, been a natural resource investigator with the department of natural resources, been a liquor enforcement officer with the liquor and cannabis board, been an investigator with the office of the insurance commissioner, or been a park ranger with the Washington state parks and recreation commission, before or after July 1, 2023; and

(B) Received a certificate of successful completion from the basic law enforcement academy or the basic law enforcement equivalency academy and thereafter engaged in regular and commissioned law enforcement employment with an agency listed in (b)(iii)(A) of this subsection without a break or interruption in excess of 24 months; and

(C) Remained current with the in-service training requirements as adopted by the commission by rule.

(3) Limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies as defined in RCW 10.93.020 shall reimburse the commission for the full cost of training their personnel.

Section 3:

(2) Any applicant who has been offered a conditional offer of employment as a peace officer or reserve officer, offered a conditional offer of employment as a corrections officer after July 1, 2021, or offered a conditional offer of employment as a limited authority Washington peace officer who if hired would qualify as a peace officer as defined by RCW 43.101.010 after July 1, 2023, must submit to a background investigation to determine the applicant's suitability for employment. This requirement applies to any person whose certification has lapsed as a result of a break of more than 24 consecutive months in the officer's service for a reason other than being recalled into military service.

(3)(b): (b) The Washington state criminal justice training commission (“commission”) shall certify peace officers who are limited authority Washington peace officers employed on or before July 1, 2023. Thereafter, the commission may revoke certification pursuant to this chapter.

CHANGES MADE BY THE SUBSTITUTE:

Section 1(9): Adds “For the purposes of this chapter, "law enforcement personnel" does not include individuals employed by the department of corrections”

Section 1(10): Adds “For the purposes of this chapter, "peace officer" does not include individuals employed by the department of corrections.”

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

No Fiscal Impact.

Enforcement currently sends all new hires to the Criminal Justice Training Commission (“commission”) academy in the first 12 months. The current training program meets the requirements defined by the CJTC and RCW.

Under section 2 there may be an impact to training depending on what certified would mean but any changes would have to be initiated by the Washington State Patrol.

If additional training for certification is needed it would be estimated at only $50 per new hire. Such costs could be absorbed by the agency.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

UTC assumes this legislation will have no fiscal impact to the UTC. The commission is a limited law enforcement agency but does not commission employees as peace officers, nor does it enforce criminal law. UTC employees do not receive certification as criminal justice personnel. UTC will not be involved in any of the above-mentioned scenarios.

Section 1 redefines what a peace officer is. The definition in the section means a law enforcement officer that carries a gun and has arrest powers.

Section 2 places basic training requirements on peace enforcement officers.

Section 3 speaks to recertification in the event that a peace officer's certification lapses.

Section 4 exempts limited law enforcement agencies except parks from the training requirements.

Section 5 again states the requirements for training do not apply to limited law enforcement agencies.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

None

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 1(9) amends RCW 43.101.010 and the definition of “Law Enforcement Personnel”. This adds limited authority Washington peace officer and who as a normal part of their duties have powers of arrest and carry a firearm.

Section 1(10) amends the definition of “Peace officer” in RCW 43.101.010. This adds “Limited authority Washington peace officers as defined in RCW 10.93.020, who have powers to arrest and carry a firearm as part of their normal duty, are peace officers for purposes of this chapter.

Section 2(2)(a) states all law enforcement personnel who are limited authority Washington peace officers and whose employment commences on or after July 1, 2023, shall commence basic law training during the first 12 months of employment unless the basic training requirement is otherwise waived or extended by the commission. Successful completion of basic training is requisite to the continuation of employment of such personnel initially employed on or after July 1, 2023.

Section 2(2)(b) states the commission shall review the training files of all personnel who are limited authority Washington peace officers, whose employment commenced prior to July 1, 2023, and who have not successfully completed training that complies with standards adopted by the commission, to determine what, if any, supplemental training is required to appropriately carry out the officers' duties and responsibilities.

Section 2(3) states Provided further, that limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies as defined in RCW 10.93.020 shall reimburse the commission for the full cost of training their personnel.

Section 3(2)(a) adds language to include limited authority Washington peace officers to RCW 43.101.095 regarding peace and corrections officer certification-Background investigation.

Section 4 amends RCW 43.101.276 regarding Sexual assault training curriculum requirement.

With the exception of the state Parks and Recreation Commission, the training requirements under this section do not apply to limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies as defined in RCW 10.93.020 whose authority does not include the investigation of sexual assaults.

Section 5 adds the following language to RCW 43.101.278 regarding Sexual assault development of proposal for case review program.

The program participation requirements under this section do not apply to limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies as defined in RCW 10.93.020 whose authority does not include the investigation of sexual assaults.

The impact of the above changes mandate an initial certifications process for approximately 350 limited commission peace officers in Washington state, which once complete, will also subject those officers to all other aspects of peace officer certification including Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission (WSCJTC) agency reporting requirements for employment status, separation status, use of force reporting, misconduct reporting, as well as WSCJTC jurisdiction for RCW 43.101.105 misconduct investigations, due process, and decertification proceedings for qualifying misconduct. Additional staff and resources will be required to support this work.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

This proposed legislation has no cash receipts impact.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

It is assumed there are 350 Limited Authority officers in the state that will be certified.

Estimated expenditures to the WSCJTC certification division for the increased workload are as follows:

Investigator 3:

Salary = $75,120 annually.

Benefits = $27,119 annually.

Community Liaison:

Salary = $90,000 annually.

Benefits = $31,317 annually.

Employee training = $2,500 annually.

Equipment (computer, furniture, etc) for two employees = $10,000 in fiscal year 2024.

Totals rounded to nearest thousand:

Fiscal year 2024 = $236,000.

Fiscal year 2025 and each year after = $226,000.

Part V: New Rule Making Required

Provisions of the bill that require the agency to adopt new administrative rules or repeal/revise existing rules.

During the ESS2B 5051 WAC changes, the WSCJTC updated its WAC rules to allow flexibility and future inclusion of other types of officers with the definitions of “certified officers.” A definition change of “certified officer” in WAC 139-01-310 would allow the inclusion of these officers throughout most of WSCJTC’s WACs. The impact of this bill on WSCJTC WAC rules is small in scope.

Potentially impacted WAC sections:

WAC 139-01-310(3) needs broadened to include the definition of limited authority peace officers.

WAC 139-05-200(3)(b) needs modified to include limited authority agencies who employ the certified limited authority peace officers proposed in this bill.

WAC 139-05-210(3)(b) needs modified to include limited authority agencies who employ the certified limited authority peace officers proposed in this bill.

WAC 139-05-210(7) needs modified to include state agency heads or designees.

WAC 139-05-300(4) and (4)(a) need modified to include state agency heads or designees.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 1 (9) Law Enforcement Personnel means any person employed as a Limited Authority Peace Officer as defined in RCW 10.93.020 who as a normal part of their duties has powers of arrest and carries a firearm.

Section 2 (2) sets out the requirements for training for limited authority Washington peace officers employed after July 1, 2023, and review of training for those employed before July 1, 2023.

Section 2 (3) Limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies shall reimburse the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission for the full cost of the training.

Department of Social and Health Services, Office of Fraud and Accountability (OFA) within DSHS is designated as a Limited Law Enforcement Agency. OFA is not fully commissioned, and OFA staff do not have powers of arrest or carry a firearm.

There is no fiscal impact for DSHS for this bill.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

1132 SHB is the substitute bill for HB 1132 and is related to the oversight and training requirements for limited authority Washington peace officers and agencies.

Section 1(9) amends RCW 43.101.010 to exclude individuals employed by the Department of Corrections from the definition of “law enforcement personnel”.

Section 1(10) amends RCW 43.101.010 to exclude individuals employed by the Department of Corrections from the definition of “peace officer”.

The previous version modified multiple RCWs to include limited authority peace officers and those officers that are armed and have arrest authority to the list of officers under the jurisdiction of Criminal Justice Training Commission (CJTC) training to include certification and law enforcement hiring practices. The original bill would have drastically changed the hiring practices for officers employed by Department of Corrections (DOC), required completion of training at CJTC as well as for DOC to reimburse CJTC for training costs. The newest version adds language to the definition in sections 1(9) and 1(10) to exclude DOC from this bill entirely, therefore removing any fiscal impact to DOC.

In the original bill, the following sections had impacted DOC:

Section 1 amends RCW 43.101.010 and the definition of “law enforcement personnel” and “peace officer” as defined by RCW 10.93.020 to include limited authority Washington peace officers who as a normal part of their duties have the power to arrest and carry a firearm.

Section 2(2)(a) amends RCW 43.101.200 to impose a requirement of basic training of limited authority Washington peace officers hired on or after July 1, 2023, unless such training is waived by the Commission.

Section 2(2)(b) requires CJTC to review the training of limited authority Washington peace officers hired prior to July 1, 2023, to determine whether they have received basic training and if they should receive additional training, although this section does not specifically state basic training as a requirement to maintain employment.

Section 2(3) requires limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies to reimburse CJTC for the full cost of training their personnel.

Section 3(1) amends RCW 43.101.095 and sets the requirement of all Washington peace officers and corrections officers to obtain certification as a peace officer or corrections officer or exemption therefrom and maintain certification as a condition of employment.

Section 3(2)(a) states the requirement of a background check before an employing agency may issue a nonconditional offer of employment.

Section 3(2)(b) outlines the specific requirements of the required background check from Section 3(2)(a) including.

Section 3(3)(b) states the CJTC shall certify limited authority Washington peace officers employed on or before July 1, 2023 and may revoke certification.

Section 3(4) states as a condition of certification, a peace officer or corrections officer must authorize the release of personnel files, including disciplinary, termination, civil or criminal investigation, or other records or information that are directly related to a certification matter or decertification matter before the CJTC to the employing agency and CJTC. The officer must also consent to and facilitate a review of the officer's social media accounts, although is not required to provide login information.

Section 3(5) states the employing agency and CJTC are authorized to receive criminal history record information, including non-conviction data for any purpose associate with employment or certification.

Section 3(6) states the CJTC shall require fingerprints be submitted by each peace officer or corrections officer and searched through the Washington State Patrol identification and criminal history section then forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation prior to issuing certification.

Section 3(7) states the employing agency shall certify to CJTC that the agency has completed the background check, no information found would disqualify the applicant from certification and the applicant is suitable for employment.

Effective date is assumed 90 days after adjournment of session in which this bill is passed.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

None.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

We assume this substitute bill will have no fiscal impact to DOC.

Individuals employed by DOC are specifically excluded from the impacts of the bill in sections 1(9) and 1(10). Therefore, we assume the bill does not apply to DOC and has no fiscal impact.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Substitute House Bill 1132 modifies training and oversight requirements for limited authority Washington peace officers and agencies. Compared with the original bill, the substitute makes the following changes:

- Revises the definitions of law enforcement personnel and peace officers to remove individuals employed by the Department of Corrections, exempting those officers from the Criminal Justice Training Commission process.

There are no changes to the University of Washington's prior fiscal analysis as a result of the substitute bill. All officers employed by the University Washington Police Department are fully commissioned and will not be affected by SHB 1132. Therefore, there is not fiscal impact to the University from SHB 1132.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

SHB 1132 amends RCW 43.101.095, 43.101.276, and 43.101.278, reenacting and amending RCW 43.101.010 and 43.101.200 to add training and oversight requirements for limited authority Washington peace officers and agencies. SHB 1132 excludes employees of the department of corrections from the definition of "Law enforcement personnel".

EWU does not employ limited authority peace officers, therefore we anticipate no fiscal impact from the passing of this bill

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

S HB 1132 Section 1 reclassifies limited authority peace officers and includes them with “law enforcement personnel” and “peace officer” for the purposes of the section.

Section 2(2) requires specific training for all law enforcement personnel who are limited authority peace officers.

Section 3: Amended Section – Modifies language regarding (2) conditional offers of employment, lapse of certification, and (3) certifications by the commission for officers employed before July 1, 2023, and revocation of certification.

Section 4 & 5: Amended Section – Adds (4) excludes limited authority law enforcement agencies from the training requirements in the section whose authority does not include investigation of sexual assaults.

Since Central Washington University does not have any limited authority peace officers, there is no anticipated fiscal impact of the proposed legislation.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

SHB 1132 relates to oversight and training requirements for limited authority peace officer and agencies.

Section 1 (9) and (10) revise the bill so that it does not apply to correctional officers.

Evergreen does not employ limited authority peace officers and is a general authority police department. Therefore, the revised bill will have no fiscal impact for Evergreen.

HB 1132 relates to oversight and training requirements for limited authority peace officers and agencies.

The Evergreen State College does not employ limited authority peace officers and is a general authority police department. Therefore, the changes will have no fiscal impact for Evergreen.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

This legislation concerns the oversight and training requirements for limited authority Washington peace officers and agencies.

In this substitute version, the definitions of law enforcement personnel and peace officers are revised to remove individuals employed by the Department of Corrections, exempting those officers from the Criminal Justice Training Commission process.

As in the original version, this bill would have zero or, potentially, minimal positive impacts to State Parks.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

None.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

This bill would have zero or, potentially, minimal positive impacts to State Parks. Currently, the agency sends all new recruits to the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center's National Park Service Park Ranger Law Enforcement Academy at Skagit Valley College. In addition to paying for meals, lodging, special uniforms, books and fees, Parks is also required to pay approximately $5,000 per person of college tuition (about 30 credits). CJTC's BLEA has essentially all of the same expenses, minus the college tuition component. However, Burien is located in a higher per diem rate area than Mount Vernon, potentially negating any savings with additional travel expenses.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

The amendments made in this substitute bill do not impact the Department of Natural Resources.

This bill would require all "Limited Authority" police officers to meet the same hiring and training standards as "General Authority" officers. These training standards include graduation from and certification by CJTC. It requires all applicants (prior to employment) pass a multi-stage background check, psychological screening and polygraph examination. This bill would apply to all police who have arrest authority and carry a firearm.

All Department of Natural Resource (DNR) Law Enforcement Officer's (as defined by this bill) already meet or (in many cases) exceed the standards/requirements set forth in the bill. Therefore, there is no additional costs that will be incurred by DNR.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Part IV: Analysis

A. SUMMARY OF BILL

Description of the bill with an emphasis on how it impacts local government.

CHANGES BETWEEN THIS VERSION AND PREVIOUS BILL VERSION:

The proposed substitute bill would exclude individuals employed by the Department of Corrections from the definitions of law enforcement personnel and peace officer in section 1. This change does not impact the expenditure and revenue impacts below.

SUMMARY OF CURRENT BILL:

The proposed legislation would amend several RCWs related to law enforcement training.

Section 1 would amend RCW 43.101.010, including limited authority Washington peace officers “who as a normal part of their duties, [have] powers of arrest and [carry] a firearm” under the definition of law enforcement personnel. The amendments in this section would also specify that such officers are peace officers for the purposes of chapter 43.101 RCW, and would strike limited authority Washington peace officers from the definition of reserve officer.

Section 2 would amend RCW 43.101.200, specifying that “all law enforcement personnel who are limited authority Washington peace officers” whose employment commences on or after July 1, 2023 “shall commence basic training during the first 12 months of employment unless the basic training requirement is otherwise waived or extended by the [Criminal Justice Training Commission (CJTC)].” CJTC would be required to review the training files of such personnel whose employment began before July 1, 2023 “who have not successfully completed training that complies with standards adopted by the commission, to determine what, if any, supplemental training is required to appropriately carry out the officers' duties and responsibilities.”

This section would specify “that limited authority Washington law enforcement agencies as defined in RCW 10.93.020 shall reimburse the commission for the full cost of training their personnel.”

Section 3 would amend RCW 43.101.095, specifying that anyone “offered a conditional offer of employment as a limited authority Washington peace officer who if hired would qualify as a peace officer as defined by RCW 43.101.010 after July 1, 2023” must submit to a background check.

B. SUMMARY OF EXPENDITURE IMPACTS

Expenditure impacts of the legislation on local governments with the expenditure provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of expenditures. Delineated between city, county and special district impacts.

The proposed legislation would have no impact on local government expenditures.

The bill would modify training requirements for limited authority Washington peace officers who have powers of arrest and carry firearms, and would subject such officers to background requirements. The Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs indicates that no such officers are currently employed by local law enforcement agencies, nor are any local law enforcement agencies limited authority law enforcement agencies. Given that, no new or current local officers would need additional training as a result of this bill’s provisions.

C. SUMMARY OF REVENUE IMPACTS

Revenue impacts of the legislation on local governments, with the revenue provisions identified by section number, and when appropriate, the detail of revenue sources. Delineated between city, county and special district impacts.

The proposed legislation would have no impact on local government revenues.
