By Representatives Barnard, Chapman, Graham, Walen, Sandlin, Eslick, Goodman, McClintock, Ybarra, and Volz

1 AN ACT Relating to civil actions alleging violation of the right
2 to be free from discrimination because of the presence of any 3 sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog
4 guide or service animal by a person with a disability; amending RCW
5 49.60.030; and adding a new section to chapter 49.60 RCW.

6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 49.60
8 RCW to read as follows:

9 With regard to any civil action under RCW 49.60.030(2) that 10 alleges any place of public resort, accommodation, assemblage, or 11 amusement that is operated by a private entity has a building, 12 facility, or parking lot that violates this chapter by reason of 13 discrimination because of the presence of any sensory, mental, or 14 physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide or service
15 animal by a person with a disability:

16 (1)(a) Before filing such civil action, the aggrieved person or 17 the person's attorney shall provide written notice with sufficient
18 detail to allow the private entity to identify and cure the violation 19 or comply with the law. If the private entity does not cure the 20 violation or comply with the law within 30 days after receiving the 21 notice, the aggrieved person may file the civil action. For the

1 purposes of this subsection, "sufficient detail" means the name of 2 the aggrieved person who encountered the barrier, the date when the 3 barrier was encountered by the aggrieved person, and a description of 4 the barrier that was encountered by the aggrieved person.

5 (b) If the private entity is required to obtain a building permit
6 or other similar form of government approval to make the changes 7 necessary to cure the violation or comply with the law and the 8 private entity, within 30 days after receiving the notice required by

9 (a) of this subsection, provides the aggrieved person or the person's 10 attorney with a corrective action plan and submits the completed 11 application for the building permit or other similar form of 12 government approval to the appropriate governmental entity for a 13 determination, the aggrieved person may not file the civil action for 14 an additional 60 days from the date that the private entity provided 15 the corrective action plan to the aggrieved person or the person's 16 attorney. The time after the completed application for the building 17 permit or other similar form of government approval is submitted to 18 the governmental entity up until a final determination is provided to 19 the private entity is tolled and is not included in calculating the 20 additional 60 days, except that any delay that is caused by the 21 private entity before the final determination is provided is not 22 tolled. During the additional 60 days, the private entity must comply 23 with the requirements of this chapter with respect to any new 24 construction.

25 (2) When filing such civil action, an aggrieved person must file 26 an affidavit, under penalty of perjury, that the aggrieved person has 27 read the entire complaint, agrees with all of the allegations and 28 facts contained in the complaint and, unless authorized by statute or 29 rule, is not receiving and has not been promised anything of value in 30 exchange for filing the civil action.

31 (3) An aggrieved person or the aggrieved person's attorney may 32 not demand or collect money from the private entity before the end of 33 the applicable time period under subsection (1) of this section but 34 may state that the private entity may be civilly liable for a
35 violation of this chapter.

36 (4) On the motion of any party, the court may stay such civil 37 action to determine whether the person filing the civil action or the 38 person's attorney is a vexatious litigant or to determine whether 39 there are multiple civil actions that involve the same plaintiff and

1 that should be consolidated consistent with the rules of civil 2 procedure.

3 (5) (a) In addition to any sanction that the court may award to a 4 party pursuant to any rule or law, the court may impose a sanction on 5 a plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney in such civil action if the 6 court determines that such action, or a series of actions under this 7 chapter, are brought for the primary purpose of obtaining a payment
8 from the defendant due to the costs of defending the action in a
9 court. When imposing a sanction, the court may consider the totality 10 of the abusive litigation-related practices of the plaintiff and the 11 plaintiff's attorney.

12 (b) If the court imposes a sanction pursuant to (a) of this 13 subsection, the court may order a party to pay a part of the sanction 14 to the commission and, if ordered, the parties must notify the 15 commission of the court's order. The commission shall use these 16 moneys to:

17 (i) Educate covered persons or entities about the person's or 18 entity's obligations under this chapter with respect to the right to 19 be free from discrimination because of the presence of any sensory, 20 mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide or 21 service animal by a person with a disability; and

22 (ii) Award attorney fees to claimants who file a meritorious 23 complaint with the commission and who resolve the complaint without 24 litigation.

25 Sec. 2. RCW 49.60.030 and 2020 c 52 s 4 are each amended to read 26 as follows:

19 order to restrict, condition, prohibit, or interfere with or in order 20 to exclude any person or persons from any business relationship on 21 the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, honorably discharged
