4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 29A.04.110 and 2005 c 2 s 4 are each amended to read
6 as follows:

7 "Partisan office" means a public office for which a candidate may 8 indicate a political party preference on his or her declaration of 9 candidacy and have that preference appear on the primary and general
10 election ballot in conjunction with his or her name. The following
11 are partisan offices:

12 (1) United States senator and United States representative;

13 (2) All state offices, including legislative, except (a) judicial 14 offices and (b) the office of superintendent of public instruction;

15 (3) All county offices except (a) judicial offices (~~and~~), (b)
16 those offices for which a county home rule charter provides 17 otherwise, and (c) the office of a county prosecutor for which the 18 county has designated as a nonpartisan office, pursuant to RCW
19 29A.52.231.

1 Sec. 2. RCW 29A.52.231 and 2004 c 271 s 174 are each amended to
2 read as follows:

3 (1) The offices of superintendent of public instruction, justice
4 of the supreme court, judge of the court of appeals, judge of the 5 superior court, and judge of the district court shall be nonpartisan 6 and the candidates therefor shall be nominated and elected as such.

7 (2) All city, town, and special purpose district elective offices
8 shall be nonpartisan and the candidates therefor shall be nominated 9 and elected as such.

10 (3)(a) The legislative authority of any county or, if authorized,
11 the voters of the county may designate the office of the county
12 prosecuting attorney to be a nonpartisan office. The designation must 13 be made before the first day of the regular filing period for a 14 general election in order to take effect for that election. The 15 designation may not create a vacancy in office or otherwise shorten
16 the remainder of any unexpired term of office.

17 (b) Any county that has previously designated the office of the 18 county prosecutor to be nonpartisan may designate the office to be 19 partisan, under the same conditions in (a) of this subsection.

20 Sec. 3. RCW 36.16.110 and 2010 c 207 s 2 are each amended to 21 read as follows:

22 (1) The county legislative authority in each county shall, at its 23 next regular or special meeting after being appraised of any vacancy 24 in any county, township, precinct, or road district office of the 25 county, fill the vacancy by the appointment of some person qualified 26 to hold such office, and the officers thus appointed shall hold
27 office until the next general election, and until their successors
28 are elected and qualified.

29 (2) If a vacancy occurs in a partisan county office after the 30 general election in a year that the position appears on the ballot
31 and before the start of the next term, the term of the successor who 32 is of the same party as the incumbent may commence once he or she has 33 qualified as defined in RCW 29A.04.133 and shall continue through the 34 term for which he or she was elected.

35 (3) If a vacancy occurs in a nonpartisan county board of 36 commissioners elective office or nonpartisan county council elective 37 office, the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the 38 same legislative district, county, or county commissioner or council 39 district as the county elective officer whose office was vacated, and

1 must be one of three persons who must be nominated by the nonpartisan 2 executive or nonpartisan chair of the board of commissioners for the 3 county. In case a majority of the members of the county legislative 4 authority do not agree upon the appointment within sixty days after 5 the vacancy occurs, the governor shall within thirty days thereafter,
6 and from the list of nominees provided for in this section, appoint
7 someone to fill the vacancy.

8 (4) If a vacancy occurs in a nonpartisan county board of 9 commissioners elective office ~~((or))~~, nonpartisan county council 10 elective office, or a nonpartisan county prosecutor office after the 11 general election in a year that the position appears on the ballot
12 and before the start of the next term, the term of the successor may 13 commence once he or she has qualified as defined in RCW 29A.04.133
14 and shall continue through the term for which he or she was elected.

15 Sec. 4. RCW 36.16.115 and 1981 c 180 s 3 are each amended to 16 read as follows:

20 authority may appoint an employee that was serving as a deputy or 21 assistant in such office at the time the vacancy occurred as an 22 acting official to perform all necessary duties to continue normal
23 office operations. The acting official will serve until a successor
24 is either elected or appointed as required by law. This section does 25 not apply to any vacancy occurring in a charter county which has 26 charter provisions inconsistent with this section.

27 Sec. 5. RCW 42.12.040 and 2013 c 11 s 88 are each amended to 28 read as follows:

29 (1) If a vacancy occurs in any partisan elective office in the 30 executive or legislative branches of state government or in any 31 partisan county elective office or any nonpartisan county prosecutor 32 office before the first day of the regular filing period, the 33 position must be open for filing during the regular filing period as 34 provided in RCW 29A.24.171 and a successor shall be elected at the 35 general election. Except during the last year of the term of office, 36 if such a vacancy occurs on or after the first day of the regular 37 filing period, the election of the successor shall occur at the next
