1            BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 2 STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

3            THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state the 4 secretary of state shall submit to the qualified voters of the state 5 for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to 6 Article II, section 1 of the Constitution of the state of Washington to 7 read as follows:

8            Article II, section 1. The legislative authority of the state of 9 Washington shall be vested in the legislature, consisting of a senate 10 and house of representatives, which shall be called the legislature of 11 the state of Washington, but the people reserve to themselves the power 12 to propose bills, laws, and to enact or reject the same at the polls,
13 independent of the legislature, and also reserve power, at their own 14 option, to approve or reject at the polls any act, item, section, or 15 part of any bill, act, or law passed by the legislature.

16            (a) Initiative: The first power reserved by the people is the 17 initiative. Every such petition shall include the full text of the 18 measure so proposed. In the case of initiatives to the legislature and 19 initiatives to the people, the number of valid signatures of legal

1 voters required shall be equal to eight percent of the votes cast for 2 the office of governor at the last gubernatorial election preceding the 3 initial filing of the text of the initiative measure with the secretary 4 of state.

5 Initiative petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state not 6 less than four months before the election at which they are to be voted 7 upon, or not less than ten days before any regular session of the 8 legislature. If filed at least four months before the election at 9 which they are to be voted upon, he shall submit the same to the vote
10 of the people at the said election. If such petitions are filed not 11 less than ten days before any regular session of the legislature, he 12 shall certify the results within forty days of the filing. If 13 certification is not complete by the date that the legislature
14 convenes, he shall provisionally certify the measure pending final 15 certification of the measure. Such initiative measures, whether 16 certified or provisionally certified, shall take precedence over all 17 other measures in the legislature except appropriation bills and shall 18 be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by the 19 legislature before the end of such regular session. If any such 20 initiative measures shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be 21 subject to the referendum petition, or it may be enacted and referred 22 by the legislature to the people for approval or rejection at the next
23 regular election. If it is rejected or if no action is taken upon it 24 by the legislature before the end of such regular session, the 25 secretary of state shall submit it to the people for approval or 26 rejection at the next ensuing regular general election. The 27 legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition 28 and propose a different one dealing with the same subject, and in such 29 event both measures shall be submitted by the secretary of state to the 30 people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing regular general 31 election. When conflicting measures are submitted to the people the 32 ballots shall be so printed that a voter can express separately by 33 making one cross (X) for each, two preferences, first, as between 34 either measure and neither, and secondly, as between one and the other.
35 If the majority of those voting on the first issue is for neither, both 36 fail, but in that case the votes on the second issue shall nevertheless 37 be carefully counted and made public. If a majority voting on the

1 first issue is for either, then the measure receiving a majority of the 2 votes on the second issue shall be law.

3 (b) Referendum. The second power reserved by the people is the 4 referendum, and it may be ordered on any act, bill, law, or any part 5 thereof passed by the legislature, except such laws as may be necessary 6 for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, 7 support of the state government and its existing public institutions, 8 either by petition signed by the required percentage of the legal 9 voters, or by the legislature as other bills are enacted(~~(Provided,~~ 10 ~~That~~)). The legislature may not order a referendum on any initiative 11 measure enacted by the legislature under the foregoing subsection (a).
12 The number of valid signatures of registered voters required on a 13 petition for referendum of an act of the legislature or any part 14 thereof, shall be equal to or exceeding four percent of the votes cast 15 for the office of governor at the last gubernatorial election preceding 16 the filing of the text of the referendum measure with the secretary of 17 state. A determination that an act, bill, law, or any part thereof is 18 necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or 19 safety, or support of the state government and its existing public
20 institutions must be executed in the form of an amendment declaring 21 such and the amendment must be approved by an affirmative vote of sixty 22 percent of the members of each house of the legislature, except that an 23 appropriation bill authorizing expenditures for operating, capital, or 24 transportation purposes is exempt from this requirement.

25 (c) No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect 26 until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was 27 enacted. No act, law, or bill approved by a majority of the electors 28 voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the legislature within 29 a period of two years following such enactment: Provided, That any 30 such act, law, or bill may be amended within two years after such 31 enactment at any regular or special session of the legislature by a 32 vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house with full 33 compliance with section 12, Article III, of the Washington
34 Constitution, and no amendatory law adopted in accordance with this 35 provision shall be subject to referendum. But such enactment may be 36 amended or repealed at any general regular or special election by 37 direct vote of the people thereon.

1 (d) The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items,
2 sections, or parts of any act, law, or bill shall not delay the 3 remainder of the measure from becoming operative. Referendum petitions 4 against measures passed by the legislature shall be filed with the 5 secretary of state not later than ninety days after the final
6 adjournment of the session of the legislature which passed the measure
7 on which the referendum is demanded. The veto power of the governor 8 shall not extend to measures initiated by or referred to the people.
9 All elections on measures referred to the people of the state shall be 10 had at the next succeeding regular general election following the 11 filing of the measure with the secretary of state, except when the 12 legislature shall order a special election. Any measure initiated by 13 the people or referred to the people as herein provided shall take 14 effect and become the law if it is approved by a majority of the votes 15 cast thereon: Provided, That the vote cast upon such question or 16 measure shall equal one-third of the total votes cast at such election 17 and not otherwise. Such measure shall be in operation on and after the 18 thirtieth day after the election at which it is approved. The style of 19 all bills proposed by initiative petition shall be: "Be it enacted by 20 the people of the State of Washington." This section shall not be 21 construed to deprive any member of the legislature of the right to 22 introduce any measure. All such petitions shall be filed with the 23 secretary of state, who shall be guided by the general laws in 24 submitting the same to the people until additional legislation shall 25 especially provide therefor. This section is self-executing, but 26 legislation may be enacted especially to facilitate its operation.

27 (e) The legislature shall provide methods of publicity of all laws 28 or parts of laws, and amendments to the Constitution referred to the 29 people with arguments for and against the laws and amendments so 30 referred. The secretary of state shall send one copy of the 31 publication to each individual place of residence in the state and 32 shall make such additional distribution as he shall determine necessary
33 to reasonably assure that each voter will have an opportunity to study 34 the measures prior to election.

35 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause
36 notice of this constitutional amendment to be published at least four

1 times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal 2 newspaper in the state.
