

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2020-4654, by Representative Mosbrucker

1       WHEREAS, Arthritis is a chronic health problem that is the 2 nation's leading cause of physical disability among Americans and is 3 most common among people with multiple chronic conditions; and

4       WHEREAS, Arthritis causes pain and loss of movement, can limit
5 everyday activities such as walking and dressing, and can even lead 6 to death; and

7       WHEREAS, A child can develop Juvenile Arthritis at any age 8 sixteen and under, even as early as one year old or younger; and

9       WHEREAS, An estimated three hundred thousand children under 10 eighteen years of age have a form of Juvenile Arthritis or a 11 rheumatic condition, representing approximately one in every two 12 hundred fifty children in the United States; and

13       WHEREAS, There are an estimated six thousand one hundred children 14 who live with Juvenile Arthritis in Washington state; and

15       WHEREAS, Childhood arthritis can make it hard to take part in 16 social and after-school activities. It can also make school work more 17 difficult; and

18       WHEREAS, Children with Juvenile Arthritis are at a higher risk of 19 depression as well as increased difficulties with learning, peer 20 relationships, and leisure activities; being bullied is common, as 21 are feelings of low self-esteem and self-worth; and

1       WHEREAS, Parents of a child with Juvenile Arthritis are more
2 likely to report work time loss, and an increased loss of income 3 potential than parents having no children with the disease; and

4       WHEREAS, Family care giver advocates and organizations, such as 5 the Arthritis Foundation and the Childhood Arthritis and Rheumatology 6 Research Alliance are striving to bring about positive changes for 7 children with any form of Juvenile Arthritis; and

8       WHEREAS, Through research, training, public services, support
9 groups, advocacy, and increased awareness, we will be more
10 understanding, inclusive, and better equipped to support the growing 11 number of children with Juvenile Arthritis and their families;

12       NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives 13 honor and support individuals with Juvenile Arthritis, and 14 acknowledge the tremendous courage that they and their families put 15 forth every day.
