Description adding a teacher representative to school boards

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Under this bill, each school board must, in addition to its regular elected members, have one teacher representative who is not a member and does not vote at school board meetings but who is entitled to attend all school board meetings.

The bill provides that the teacher representative to a school board must be an employee of the school district who is employed in a teaching role. The teacher representative is selected by the employees of the school district who are employed in teaching roles by secret ballot held no later than the spring election, which is the election at which school board members are elected. The bill directs each school district clerk to establish the timelines and procedures for providing notice of and conducting the secret ballot and for notifying interested persons regarding the result of the secret ballot.

Local: Indeterminate

It is unknown whether school districts would incur additional costs under this bill. It is also unknown whether potential costs would vary among school districts.
