Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill requires a private school participating in a parental choice program to annually report to the Department of Public Instruction all of the following information related to suspensions and expulsions of pupils from the private school:

1. The number of pupils who were suspended from the private school during the previous school year.
2. The number of pupils who were expelled from the private school during the previous school year.
3. The reasons for which pupils were suspended or expelled from the private school in the previous school year.
4. The length of time for which the pupils were expelled.
5. Whether pupils who were expelled returned to the private school after expulsions.
6. Any educational programs or services the private school provided to pupils during expulsions.

ASSEMBLY BILL 618

7. The grade, sex, and ethnicity of pupils who were suspended or expelled and whether the suspended or expelled pupils are children with disabilities.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
