Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill changes certain penalties and requirements related to operating a motor vehicle without sufficient liability insurance and allows certain religious sects to qualify as self-insurers for the purposes of motor vehicle liability insurance requirements.

Current law prohibits, with certain exceptions, a person from operating a motor vehicle on a highway unless the vehicle owner or operator has in effect a sufficient motor vehicle liability insurance policy with respect to the motor vehicle. Any person who violates this requirement may be required to forfeit not more than $500. Current law also prohibits a person from operating a motor vehicle on a highway unless the person has in his or her immediate possession proof that he or she is in compliance with the insurance requirement.

Under this bill, persons who are operating a motor vehicle on certain nonhighway areas, including certain parking areas, are also required to have in effect insurance with respect to the motor vehicle.

This bill repeals the requirement that a person have in his or her immediate possession proof of compliance with insurance requirements. However, under this bill, a traffic officer must cite a person for operating without insurance if the traffic officer does not know that the person is in compliance with the insurance requirements and the person does not have in his or her immediate possession proof of compliance. A person, though, may not be convicted of operating without insurance if the person produces proof that he or she was in compliance with the insurance requirements at the time he or she was issued a citation for a violation.

This bill also alters the penalties for operating without insurance. Under this bill, a person who violates the requirement that the owner or operator of a motor vehicle be insured is subject to the following penalties:

1. A forfeiture of not less than $250 and not more than $750 for a first offense.
2. A forfeiture of not less than $250 nor more than $1,500 for a second or subsequent offense occurring within three years.
3. If the person, in the course of the violation, causes great bodily harm to another, a forfeiture of not less than $250 nor more than $2,500.
4. If the person, in the course of the violation, causes the death of another, a forfeiture of not less than $500 nor more than $7,500.

This bill also eliminates the exemption of operating without insurance offenses from certain surcharges and fees that generally must be paid by persons who violate traffic laws.

Currently, if the Department of Transportation receives a certified copy of a judgment for damages of $500 or more arising out of a motor vehicle accident, DOT must, with certain exceptions, immediately suspend the operating privilege and all registrations of the person against whom the judgment was rendered unless the person can provide proof of financial responsibility. Proof of financial responsibility may be given by filing certification of coverage under a motor vehicle liability insurance policy with minimum limits for any single accident of $25,000 for bodily injury to or death of one person, $50,000 for bodily injury to or death of more than one person, and $10,000 for property damage. Alternatively, proof of financial responsibility may be furnished by depositing with DOT $60,000 in cash or certain securities with a market value of $60,000. DOT must then hold the deposit of cash or securities to satisfy any judgment against the person making the deposit for damages resulting from the ownership, maintenance, use, or operation of a motor vehicle, including damages for bodily injury, death, or property damage.

Under this bill, if DOT receives a record of conviction for operating a motor vehicle on a highway without having in effect a motor vehicle liability insurance policy with respect to the vehicle, DOT must suspend the person's operating privilege and all registrations of the person unless the person can provide proof of financial responsibility. The proof of financial responsibility requirement remains in effect for three years from the date of conviction.

Under current law, for the purposes of motor vehicle liability insurance requirements and proof of financial responsibility requirements, in lieu of a motor vehicle liability insurance policy, a person can show that the person is a self-insurer possessing a certificate of self-insurance issued by DOT. Currently, a person who owns a fleet of more than 25 motor vehicles registered in the person's name may qualify as a self-insurer. Upon application, DOT may issue a certificate of self-insurance to the person if DOT is satisfied that the person is possessed, and will continue to be possessed, of ability to pay judgments obtained against the person.

Under this bill, a religious sect the members of which have collectively registered with DOT more than 25 vehicles may qualify as a self-insurer. Upon application, DOT may issue a certificate of self-insurance to a religious sect the members of which have a long-standing history of providing mutual financial assistance in a time of need, if DOT is satisfied that the religious sect is possessed, and will continue to be possessed, of ability to pay judgments obtained against the religious sect. If DOT issues a certificate of self-insurance to a religious sect, the certificate of self-insurance provides the same exception for members of the religious sect that, under current law, applies to a fleet owner: the certificate of self-insurance can be used in lieu of motor vehicle liability insurance to satisfy proof of financial responsibility and mandatory motor vehicle liability insurance requirements.
