AUTHORS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

- 1 Relating to: recognizing May 8 through May 12, 2017, as National Teacher
- 2 Appreciation Week in Wisconsin.
- 3 Whereas, throughout Wisconsin and across the nation, teachers have an
- 4 important and lasting impact on the lives of our children; and
- 5 Whereas, teachers spend countless hours preparing lessons, evaluating
- 6 progress, counseling and coaching students, and performing community service; and
- 7 Whereas, teachers fill many roles as educators, encouragers, listeners,
- 8 explorers, role models, motivators, and mentors; and
- 9 Whereas, teachers keep American democracy alive by laying the foundation for
- 10 good citizenship and work hard to develop the leaders of tomorrow; and
- 11 Whereas, the future of our country depends upon providing quality education
- 12 to all students in our state; and
- 13 Whereas, the legislature has an opportunity to commend and recognize the
- 14 outstanding work of public, private, and home school educators across Wisconsin and
- 15 the United States; and
