Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

AUTHORS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

1 To amend section 18 of article I of the constitution; relating to: the freedom to 2 gather in places of worship during a state of emergency (first consideration).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This constitutional amendment, proposed to the 2023 legislature on first consideration, provides that the state or a political subdivision of the state may not order the closure of or forbid gatherings in places of worship in response to a state of emergency at the national, state, or local level, including an emergency related to public health.

A constitutional amendment requires adoption by two successive legislatures, and ratification by the people, before it can become effective.

3 Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That:

4 SECTION 1. Section 18 of article I of the constitution is amended to read:

5 [Article I] Section 18. The right of every person to worship Almighty God
6 according to the dictates of conscience shall never be infringed; nor shall any person
7 be compelled to attend, erect or support any place of worship, or to maintain any
8 ministry, without consent; nor shall any control of, or interference with, the rights
9 of conscience be permitted, or any preference be given by law to any religious

1 establishments or modes of worship; nor shall any money be drawn from the treasury
2 for the benefit of religious societies, or religious or theological seminaries; nor shall
3 the state or a political subdivision of the state order the closure of or forbid gatherings
4 in places of worship in response to a state of emergency at the national, state, or local 5 level, including an emergency related to public health.

6 Be it further resolved, That this proposed amendment be referred to the 7 legislature to be chosen at the next general election and that it be published for three 8 months previous to the time of holding such election.
