7 Act, which drew from many African Americans taking a positive stance on breaking

14 heritage of people of African descent in Wisconsin; and

2 disseminates materials depicting African heritage, while serving as a resource 3 center for all people interested in African American heritage and as a promoter of 4 family, community, and cultural activities; and

5 Whereas, James Hightower III, on June 15, 2013, at the age of 12, became the 6 youngest African American in American history to earn the honor of Eagle Scout, 7 scouting's highest honor; and

8 Whereas, James Hightower III, for his Eagle Scout service project, rebuilt six 9 bleachers at the three baseball fields of Kletzsch Park, leading recruitment and 10 fundraising efforts for this massive undertaking that enriched the Glendale and 11 Milwaukee communities; and

12 Whereas, James Hightower III is an inspiration for children and adults in 13 Milwaukee and in the entire state of Wisconsin for his commitment to setting and 14 achieving ambitious goals and working tirelessly to invest in and give back to his 15 community and the world around him; and

16 Whereas, many African Americans have served in the legislature, including 17 former senators Spencer Coggs, Gary George, Gwendolynne Moore, and Monroe
18 Swan and former representatives Lloyd Barbee, Cecil B. Brown Jr., Elizabeth Coggs,
