Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates the crime of intentionally taking by the use of force, or by the threat of the use of force, a vehicle without the consent of the owner. The penalty classification for this crime is a Class E felony.

This bill also increases to a Class F felony the penalty classification for a repeat offense of taking and driving a vehicle without the consent of the owner. Under current law, a repeat offense has the same penalty classification as the first offense, a Class H felony. The bill also increases to a Class G felony the penalty classification for a repeat offense of driving or operating a vehicle without the consent of the owner. Under current law a repeat offense has the same penalty classification as a first offense, a Class I felony.

This table lists the penalty classifications for the felonies:

Class E felony	fine not to exceed $50,000 or imprisonment not to exceed 15 years, or both
Class F felony	fine not to exceed $25,000 or imprisonment not to exceed 12 years and 6 months, or both
Class G felony	fine not to exceed $25,000 or imprisonment not to exceed 10 years, or both.

SENATE BILL 58

Class H felony	fine not to exceed $10,000 or imprisonment not to exceed 6 years, or both
Class I felony	fine not to exceed $10,000 or imprisonment not to exceed 3 years and 6 months, or both
