7 Section 1. W.S. 5-9-149 is amended to read:

8

9 5-9-149. Bank accounts.

10

11 The accounting system established by the Wyoming supreme 12 court may provide for bank accounts for each circuit court in 13 which money received by the circuit court may be deposited
14 and disbursed as provided therein, and for such records,
15 reports and procedures as the supreme court requires. Money

1 ~~received as fines, forfeitures or court costs may not be~~
2 ~~deposited in the same bank account as money received in civil~~
3 ~~matters.~~ If a bank account is established into which fines,
4 costs or forfeitures are deposited, the accounting system
5 established by the supreme court shall require, where
6 available, the use of accounts in a financial institution
7 authorized by W.S. 9-4-803(a) which may earn interest, in 8 which the deposits are subject to payment upon demand and 9 which are insured or secured as provided in W.S. 9-4-817(c).
10 Interest earned on deposits of fines and forfeitures in such
11 accounts shall be forwarded monthly to the county treasurer
12 and credited to the county public school fund. Interest earned
13 on all other deposits in such accounts shall be forwarded to 14 the state treasurer quarterly and credited to the victim's
15 compensation account created by W.S. 1-40-114(a).

16

17 Section 2. This act is effective July 1, 2019.
